The Port Ludlow Funfest...by the bay will kick off with our local area musical group, Nostalgia with Mary Lou Montgomery. They will play at the Beach Club on the evening of Friday, September 15, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

This group specializes in music from the 40s, 50s and 60s. The Beach Club's Bayview Room capacity limits seating so get your tickets early. Tickets are $15 per person and are on sale at the Beach Club.

Get In the Mood, Wake up Little Suzie, get your One True Love, wave

The Doggie in the Window goodnight and head out for an evening of cool entertainment. Dress up for the occasion. Dress up in that old zoot suit in the closet, your poodle skirt or your Elvis wig. Put on a straw hat, beehive your hair or wear a Hawaiian tie. Don't forget the "Bryl-creme" either! Let it all hang out for a true night of "Nostalgia..."

Besides Friday night's entertainment, the Funfest Committee also has planned a large and varied line up of free on-stage entertainment in the Marina Tent on both Saturday and Sunday, September 16 and 17. (See page 3 for a complete list and schedule.)

Also planned for the weekend's activity adjacent to the Marina is a varied list of Washington-made arts and crafts people chosen for quality. (See page 7 for a complete list.)

Most certainly, do not forget to get your collector's art poster at the information booth and get it signed by the artist. (See related article on page 3.)

Come on out and have a good time at your Port Ludlow Funfest...by the bay. A great way to end the 2006 summer!

From the Editor's Keyboard

by Barbara Wagner-Jauregg, Managing Editor

The issue of whether Trendwest should be allowed to complete the purchase of the old “Log Dump” from Port Ludlow Associates (PLA) is still a very hot issue here. Arguments both for and against are heard from all quarters, and with our penchant for rumor and gossip, misinformation has many people confused.

In hopes of clarifying at least some of the issues, we asked Larry Nobles, former Chairman of the Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) Community Development Committee, and presently a PLVC Council member to clarify the subject coming before the Jefferson County Hearing Examiner here on Friday, September 22, 2:00 p.m., at the Bay Club. Nobles has been both with and in opposition to the Developer on land use issues—with his primary goal being “what’s good for the community.” In preparing his article, he consulted with Barbara Nightingale, the Jefferson County Planner for Port Ludlow, representatives of Trendwest and Port Ludlow Associates (PLA). (Read his article on page 2.)

A reader correctly called our attention to an error made by PLA’s Diana Smeland in her August Voice article. She acknowledged her misstatement at the August PLVC meeting, and does again in her September article. (See page 35.)

My take on Trendwest may bring up something many haven’t considered. First, PLA owns and has the right to build homes to the development cap of 2,250 residential units within the Master Planned Resort (MPR). This is their legal right and it will happen despite all the blockades thrown before them. At this time, approximately 400 residential units remain to be built and the Trendwest project will take up 120 of them.

If Trendwest is not allowed to build and only 40 to 50 private homes are built on the Log Dump land, those 350 to 360 homes will be built elsewhere, predominantly in cluster communities throughout South Bay. Villages would no doubt be built within the “Timber” nine at the Golf Course and adjacent to Timberton and Bayview Villages. Imagine the number of acres that will fall to the ax as more forestland becomes residential villages—then perhaps you’ll understand why my preference is for Trendwest to use 120 residential units.

The views expressed in this column are the Editor’s alone—and don’t necessarily represent the views of every volunteer member of the Voice staff.

Ludlow Cove 2 Tract E Zoning

by Laurence Nobles

Editor’s Note: Because of confusion on the part of many over the status of the proposed Trendwest development in Port Ludlow, we have asked Larry Nobles to provide historical perspective for our readers. This document has been reviewed and approved by Barbara Nightingale, Jefferson County Planner for Port Ludlow.

Port Ludlow Associates (PLA) has a contract to sell 14.66 acres of land within the Master Planned Resort (MPR) known as Ludlow Cove 2 Tract E (a.k.a. the Log Dump) to Trendwest, a division of Cendant Corporation. Trendwest plans “a 120-unit timeshare multifamily development” on the property. After construction Trendwest would deed the project debt-free to WorldMark, a nonprofit mutual benefit entity of about 250,000 members. In order to consummate the sale PLA seeks to have the property approved for multifamily timeshare use. The 1994 Jefferson County zoning code does not specifically cover timeshares. (A WorldMark/Trendwest timeshare Resort currently operates at Discovery Bay and there are also several timeshare properties at Kala Point.)

The 1995 Interim Urban Growth Area Ordinance allowed the original application to be vested with a multifamily density that allows 16 dwelling units per acre. Consistent with this the County granted a Conditional Use Permit (CUP) in 2002 for multifamily use of Tract E in conjunction with approval of the binding site plan for single family development of Ludlow Cove 1, Phases 1 and 2, which are now under construction.

In early 2005 PLA applied, under the CUP, for the timeshare project that is now envisaged. Approval of the application was recommended by the County Development Department and granted by the Hearing Examiner in September of 2005, subject to 36 conditions. The Hearing Examiner ruled, “The Trendwest time-share proposal does not change the project from multifamily residential to hotel or other commercial use.”

This decision was appealed by Lester Powers and Rick Rozzell and also by Lewis Hale. In December 2005, the Appellate Hearing Examiner ruled, “The Examiner’s acceptance of the position that Trendwest’s proposal is a multifamily residential development was clearly erroneous.” He vacated the Examiner’s decision and remanded back portions of it to him for further consideration. PLA has filed suit in Jefferson County Superior Court to overturn the Appellate Examiner’s decision, but the suit is not active and no trial date has been set.

Funfest...by the Bay Poster Art Contest

by David Goudie

Port Ludlow Funfest... by the bay 2006

September 16th & 17th, 2006 • 10:00 to 5:00 pm • Port Ludlow Marina
Sponsored by Port Ludlow Village Council and Port Ludlow Association

The Funfest 2006 Poster Art Contest is complete. The winning art entry for the limited edition collector poster was submitted Bobette Bird. She received a gift certificate for a one-night stay at the Inn at Port Ludlow from Port Ludlow Associates. A $100 gift certificate to be used at either the Fireside or Harbormaster was also presented.

All entries were displayed during the Port Ludlow Art Walk in June with music provided by the Chimacum Pi program string ensemble. A sample of the winning artwork on The Limited Edition Collector Poster was displayed.

Patricia Settle took home second place, while Marti Mathias placed third. Penny Sanzaro's entry will be used on general advertising. Each received gift certificates from Port Ludlow Skin Care and Spa.

Filling out the field of entries were Fran Bodman, David Goudie, Phyllis Hansen and Sandie Schmidt.

You may place your prepaid order at $15 at the Funfest tent at your Port Ludlow Friday Market where a framed sample is displayed. All orders may be picked up at the Funfest Information Booth. Each poster will be numbered and signed by the artist, Bobette Bird, at that time.

PLA has instead chosen to first seek a legislative decision on the property from the Board of County Commissioners (BoCC). Under the 1998 Comprehensive Plan, Tract E is zoned single family, four dwellings per acre, which is also reflected in the 2000 Development Agreement. However, using the Flexibility Section of the Development Agreement, PLA is asking for an amendment to the Development Agreement to change the development standards only on Tract E to allow for the 120-unit timeshare development. The amendment sought is similar to a "variance," which permits an additional use at a specific location. The process to be followed is outlined in the County Administrator's article in this issue of the Voice. (See page 20.)

If the proposed amendment is approved by the BoCC the decision can, of course, be appealed to Superior Court. If it is turned down PLA/Trendwest could appeal the BoCC decision to the Court and it also still has the option to press its previous suit in Superior Court to overturn the Appellate Examiner's decision.

PLVC Candidates' Issues Identified

by Kay Standish, Contributing Editor

The August edition of the Voice requested that candidates for the Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) Board of Directors submit a 50-word brief outlining their positions on each of the three most important issues they believe are facing Port Ludlow at this time.

At publication time four candidates have indicated they would run. Their choice of issues and their responses follow and where necessary have been edited due to space limitations. The candidates are listed alphabetically.

Bill Browne:

- Refine Port Ludlow's governing structure: Examine the mission, priorities and procedures of our PLVC. Communications with the County and Port Ludlow Associates (PLA) should be used to promote rational growth while maintaining quality of life.
- Preparation for Port Ludlow's build-out: Encourage and support Port Ludlow's build-out. Planning for possible ownership changes of our basic utilities (water and sewer) and emergency preparedness should be continued.
- Strengthening community spirit and cooperativeness: Develop an agenda that supports the community members' interests and priorities.

Lani McCarry:

- Through outreach, identify unifying issues to build consensus among residents that result in advancing the interests of our community.
- Seek to balance the interests of the residents and businesses, including the developer, to promote economic vitality while preserving our unique natural environment.
- Effectively represent community interests and concerns in working with local and State government.

Tom McCay:

- ...Establish reasonable, mutually beneficial relationships between individuals and agencies in North...and South Bay in order to develop a unity of purpose throughout the community. ...We share the same problems and objectives. Bringing Port Ludlow together into a cohesive whole would engender a sense of community, ...And, ...it will give us more political impact in our dealings with the County.
- ...Concede PLA has legal rights to build on land they own and have platted. It is our responsibility as citizens to ensure that the development they undertake is within all legal restrictions placed upon them by County and State governmental agencies and ...complies with the Development Agreement between PLA and the County and the appended CC&Rs for which the PLVC is grantee. ...Best accomplished by cultivating a mutually respectful working relationship between PLA and the community, most notably between PLA and the PLVC.

- ...Encourage members of the PLVC Board and its Standing Committees to recognize they are elected or appointed to represent the views of their constituencies and not their own personal agendas. ...The PLVC should be a unifying force in the community if it is to be perceived as a legitimate spokesman for Port Ludlow. Regional and personal feelings must be subverted to the broader view—what does my electorate want and what is best for the community as a whole? ...

Paul Moseley:

- Communication: ...We form opinions based on the rumor mill ... rather than getting the facts ...looking at and considering, then making educated decisions. We need the facts ... laid out ...with response from the community by independent thinkers rather than ... a small group making decisions ... based on bias and partial facts.
- Representation: Committee members of the PLVC should listen to the populace ... find out what the community really wants. We should not have petitions for one side or the other but lay out the facts and let ... folks have a choice as to what direction ... the community should move. ... Everyone has an opinion and we should all have equal ground to express our concerns as well as our desires for the future community. ...Though everyone will never be in total agreement, we should be able to form a general consensus and move forward as a unified community ...
- Dynamic Phenomena: Port Ludlow is changing! ...Many younger families are moving into our neighborhoods and we need some young folks to sit on the PLVC to make sure those interests are considered. We have parks ... recreation trails ... sporting facilities. We have children and we have the dynamics of Port Ludlow changing drastically. We need to be prepared as Port Ludlow grows to make sure we have healthy outlets and activities for our younger folks while keeping the peace and tranquility.

Council members continuing for the second year of their two-year term include Don Clark, Tony Durham, Allen Panasuk and Bruce Pyles.

According to PLVC's Articles of Incorporation, people entitled to vote in the election are "...all owners of real property, within the Port Ludlow Master Planned Resort..." This "includes condominium owners and owners of land that has not been built upon and owners of realty held in trust as trustee or as beneficiary of a trust. Each owner ...shall have only one vote for each Director position ...without regard for the number of parcels of real property ... owned."

PLVC is not a taxing entity or a governing body. "PLVC is intended to be funded by donations, gifts, user fees and other fund-raising activities."

According to Frank Siler, Director of Elections, the biographies of the candidates and the ballot will be mailed in late August or early September. The ballots may be deposited in special ballot boxes, which will be at both Clubs. All ballots are due by Saturday, September 30. If you do not receive a ballot, contact PLVC President Elizabeth Van Zonneveld at 437-5118. All ballots are secret as they are removed from their envelopes upon receipt and prior to counting.

Demonstrate your interest in how Port Ludlow matures—be sure to vote in the PLVC election.

Your Port Ludlow Friday Market

by David Goudie

With September here, Your Friday Market will continue as long as weather permits. Instead of writing about the market, I want to say something about the driving force behind it.

Sandie Schmidt has served her country as a veteran of the Marines and Air Force. She now serves her community by single-handedly keeping Your Friday Market a viable, living thing. A love of her community and Your Friday Market, with what it provides to us, is what gives Sandie joy.

So next time you are at Your Friday Market, look for Sandie Schmidt. She is always there. Sandie has a booth with her brightly colored and unique paintings but she will more than likely be found visiting with vendors and all the rest of us. Give her a big hug and an even bigger thank you. Sandie deserves it!

Meet your friends and Sandie at the Your Port Ludlow Friday Market.

Hood Canal Bridge Update

by Bill Hansen, Contributing Editor

The Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT) has released a review of their work on the SR 104 Hood Canal Bridge replacement, plus a schedule leading to the bridge closure in 2009. This quarter's highlights were placing the first anchor gallery assembly (the steel parts where the anchor cable connects the pontoon and the 1,000-plus-ton concrete anchor) in the pontoon and starting work on the west-half mechanical and electrical retrofitting.

The east-half replacement is to be finished in 2009 and the west-half in 2010. Work currently focuses on fabricating steel trusses, hatches and parts for the bridge. Concurrently, Kiewit-General (K-G) of Poulsbo, the same contractor who accomplished the August 2005 Hood Canal Bridge approach span replacements, is now building the new east-half floating pontoons at a graving dock in Tacoma.

The long-anticipated closure of the bridge for the replacement of the bridge's east half will take place in May-June 2009. WSDOT and K-G have developed a plan to cut the bridge's anticipated closure to just six weeks, which could extend two additional weeks if crews experience bad weather conditions. During this time, the east and west transition trusses will be replaced, the old east-half floating sections cut away and the new sections floated into position, cabled together and anchored.

Closing the bridge, which carries an average of 20,000 trips on weekends, will significantly affect drivers and surrounding communities. WSDOT is working closely with area residents and transportation, business, tourism and community groups to help drivers prepare for the closure.

To see pictures and read all about the work, go to www.hoodcanalbridge.com for news on construction progress, design information, safety updates, public outreach and partnerships, financial report and environmental stewardship.

One Cut Above Salon is Here!

The former Village Salon in the Village Center has a new name, a new owner, and a new color scheme. Giovanni Tardi, who recently relocated to Port Ludlow, is the new proprietor of One Cut Above Salon. He brings 35 years of experience in the cosmetology industry. Giovanni's professional experience started in New Jersey where he trained and eventually owned his own salon for over 10 years. Moving to Las Vegas, he worked behind the chair in salons and taught cosmetology for a number of years, which he found to be a rewarding experience.

The One Cut Above Salon will be open Tuesday through Saturday, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., for both men and women. Professional services offered include haircutting, hair coloring, permanent waving, roller sets and conditioning treatments.

The salon sports a new color scheme, and a new work area has been added along with some personal artwork. Hair care products offered are from Wella. Call for an appointment at 437-9228. Walk-ins welcome, too.

PLCC Beginning Computer Classes

Register now for the next Beginning Computer Class sponsored by the Port Ludlow Computer Club (PLCC). Classes will begin on Wednesday, September 13, and continue for four additional consecutive Wednesdays, September 20, 27, October 4 and 11, from 2:00 to 4:30 p.m., at the Bay Club. PLCC membership is not a requirement.

This class is suitable for beginners, for people contemplating a computer purchase and generally for people who wish to understand or brush up on the fundamentals of Windows95/98/Me/Xp, e-mail, letter writing and Internet browsing, and for people transitioning from Windows 98/ME to Windows XP.

The fee is $30 and includes an easy-to-use text. Over 600 of your neighbors have already attended this popular course and it fills very rapidly. If you have interest or wish to register, please call Bernie Kestler at 437-5102 for all the details.

United Good Neighbors: 2006 Kick-Off

by Lizanne Coker, Campaign Director

The success of United Good Neighbors (UGN) can be traced back to its beginning in 1957, a time when many people knew their neighbors by name and could identify those in need of a "helping hand." Through unified giving by businesses and individuals once a year, UGN still has the capacity to find those in need by supporting local human service agencies.

Alas, none of this would be possible without community support. Many of UGN programs are possible because volunteers work together to reach a common goal.

Port Ludlow resident Myron Vogt and a member of the Boeing Bluebills says, "There is hardly an activity Bluebills do that isn't connected in some way with one of the agencies or non-profits that receives funding through UGN. Our bicycle and hospital equipment repair programs are funded by UGN-supported agencies. Insurance coverage and often the material for things like the ramps we build and grab bars we install are covered by UGN-supported agencies. Almost as important, UGN has provided guidance and advice to Bluebills since our beginning in 1997. We need to support UGN like they support our community."

As many of you already know, United Good Neighbors is the only umbrella organization in Jefferson County that supports 501 (c) non-profits. Every fall, UGN campaigns for your neighbors in your County. All of your donations stay within Jefferson County.

This years' goal is a lofty $295,000. When your UGN letter arrives this September, please look closely at the programs UGN serves. Please remember that every gift is welcome and that with your help, UGN can reach those in need in your County.

When the “Big One” Comes

by Kay Standish, Contributing Editor

State Representative Jim Buck (R-Joyce) opened the Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) General Meeting in August with a presentation on the “Possible Effects of the Cascadia Earthquake on the 24th Legislative District.” Although the focus was on the 24th District, comprised of Clallam, Jefferson and Grays Harbor Counties, the presentation also demonstrated how the severity of damage throughout the Olympic Peninsula and the Pacific Northwest would affect our rescue and recovery activities.

The Pacific Northwest is prone to a specific type of destructive earthquake called a subduction quake. These quakes occur along a zone off the coast where a submerged landmass known as the Juan de Fuca plate is sinking under the North American plate at about two centimeters a year. The pressure building along the fault has lifted the Olympic Peninsula about six feet while causing the seafloor to sink by the same amount.

Choosing a worst-case scenario, Representative Buck placed the start of the quake on a late January afternoon with the temperature at 35 degrees and a rain and/or snowstorm. It would be two hours before high tide and the soil condition is saturated. The quake starts 130 miles off the coast along a 600-mile long rupture covering a width of 50 miles. The duration of the quake would be 4-1/2 minutes during which time people would be unable to stand. The Richter scale magnitude at the rupture would be 9.2 with plus/minus 8.0 being felt in the 24th District and Interstate-5 being plus/minus 7.0. People would feel severe shaking from Northern California to the north end of Vancouver Island and from the Pacific Coast to the Cascade crest.

Under these circumstances the quake and tsunami damage would be worsened by the danger of exposure during the cold wet night with no power and little communications in damaged or destroyed communities.

During this magnitude of earthquake, most of the western Olympic Peninsula is predicted to sink three to six feet with the rest of Western Washington sinking as much as three feet. This process is known as subsidence. By examining dead tree ring patterns and by carbon-14 dating, geologists have determined that the last big coastal sinking in Washington occurred about 300 years ago followed by a large tsunami.

The rising and the sinking of the ground causes shaking. Ground shaking from an earthquake depends on proximity to the epicenter and soil conditions. This combined with building type would affect the scale of damage at any given place. The severe shaking would cause liquefaction in wet soils throughout the Olympic Peninsula. In this phenomenon, strong earthquake shaking causes a soil to rapidly lose its strength and behave like quicksand. Liquefaction typically occurs in artificial fills and in areas of loose sandy soils that are saturated with water, such as low-lying coastal areas, lakeshores and river valleys. Liquefaction can destroy roads, runways, expose underground utilities, and threaten structural foundations including bridges and piers. Slides would delay aid and supplies reaching the Peninsula not only by road but also by disrupting north-south rail lines.

Subsidence, shaking, slides, liquefaction and tsunami would affect our area and delay outside assistance reaching us. Un-reinforced masonry buildings would suffer significant damage. The Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT) expects significant shaking would damage bridges, roadways and passes throughout the Peninsula as well as the rest of the Pacific Northwest. This would result in widespread damage along the major transportation corridors of Highway 101, Interstate 5, Highway 99, and across the Coast Range.

Communities would be isolated from each other by slides, liquefacted roads, debris flows and downed bridges. It would be up to residents in each community to pull together, start rescue operations and begin to re-establish the road network. Emergency management services are planning for this event but the magnitude of the damage could prevent meaningful help getting to Port Ludlow for several weeks.

Our ability to survive will depend upon how prepared we are. Each home should have a Disaster Supply Kit. Jefferson County Department of Emergency Management has compiled a basic list of items readily available at your local hardware store. (See related box on page 12)

PLCC Event Raises Funds for Warren Berg Scholarship

*The late Warren Berg.

The August General Meeting of the Port Ludlow Computer Club (PLCC) was extra special. Members enjoyed socializing and great food followed by silent auctions and raffles. The funds raised, totaling nearly $800, will help support the "Warren Berg Technology Scholarship." This scholarship will be awarded to a deserving Chimacum High School graduate who wishes to pursue higher education in the field of computer technology.

A variety of vendors donated new devices, software, books, and services. PLCC members contributed computer-related items in good condition that they were no longer using. Some items were given away; others were distributed at silent auction or raffled off. The Club thanks all those who contributed and helped to make this a successful event.

This scholarship could not have been named more appropriately. Warren Berg, who passed away in April 2006, was one of the original founders of the PLCC in 1996 and provided constant direction and leadership for the group. He has been described as a man with a kind heart and a gentle soul. As Bob Graham put it, "Whenever someone called for help, Warren was always the first to answer."

A life-long resident of Washington, Warren's passion was our state flower, the rhododendron. He was recognized worldwide as an expert in hybridizing and cultivating these lovely plants and had personally developed many of the varieties we enjoy every spring.

CEA's Silent Auction

Your fall cleaning is a good time to think about items to donate to the Community Enrichment Alliance (CEA) silent auction. It will be held in November this year. Not only will we give you a tax deductible receipt, but we will pick up your auction items, just call Sharon Commander at 437-2468 or Edie Main at 437-0626.

Chief Ed Wilkerson's Safety Tip:

Be sure street signs are easy to read and house numbers are clearly visible from the road so that emergency responders can locate the address quickly. Driveways, especially long ones, should be at least 12-feet wide with a vertical clearance of 15 feet so they are passable for emergency vehicles.

Remember, the Residential Burn Ban will continue at least through August 31.

Drama Groups Unite

Members of the Port Ludlow Little Theater and The Port Ludlow Players met in August for a get-acquainted meeting to plan for the future as one unified community theater group. Among items of discussion were a new name, financial status, production types and locations, and a new Board consisting of three members from each group. After the first Board meeting, more details will be available.

Watch the Voice for an announcement regarding auditions in early December for the first production of the newly merged theater group. Suggestions for a new name will be gladly considered. For information and to suggest a name, call Val Durling at 437-2861.

Short Course on Comprehensive Planning Well-Attended

by Beverly Browne, Contributing Editor

The Washington State Department of Community, Trade and Economic Development (CTED) presented a three-hour Short Course on local planning to residents and planners on Thursday evening, July 27 at the Bay Club. The County Department of Economic Development (DCD) and the Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) were sponsors. It is offered statewide according to Ted Gage, Senior Planner for Growth Management Services at CTED.

Nearly 60 people gathered to learn about Washington State planning statutes.

The class started with a review of the legal basis of planning in Washington. Phil Olbrechts, land use and municipal law specialist and partner in the Seattle firm of Ogden, Murphy Wallace, discussed legislation leading to the 1991 Growth Management Act (GMA) that guides development today. The previous legislation included the Open Public Meetings Act, the State Environmental Policy Act, and the Shoreline Management Act.

Paul Rogerson, City of Sumner Director of Community Development, followed with a talk on the basics of planning. He said the GMA was created to allow rural areas to stay rural and concentrate growth in urban areas. He said inefficient growth had an impact on public rights, community economics, and citizen quality of life. The legislation was intended to improve these issues.

Art Solbakken, Development Manager for Suncadia Resort in Roslyn, WA, spoke on that Master Planned Resort (MPR). Although Suncadia and Port Ludlow both have MPR designations, there are significant differences between the two communities. In the case of Suncadia, these include a cap of 25 percent on the number of units that can be full-time residential units and reliance on the adjacent city to provide water and sewer.

The program finished with Josh Peters, Senior Planner for the Jefferson County DCD, and Michelle McConnell, a project coordinator for the Department. Peters said Port Ludlow was originally an Urban Growth Area (UGA) but the designation was changed due to sewer inadequacies. McConnell reported updating of the County's Shoreline Master Program (SMP) would be finished next year. Information is on the County website www.co.jefferson.wa.us. A Shoreline Charrette is planned for October 12–17, 2006. Refer to the website for more information on progress of the planning.

Port Ludlow Electronics Recycling Project

by Robert Burns

As indicated in last month's Voice, efforts are underway to conduct a collection of electronic items to include televisions, computers, microwaves, telephones, digital cameras, etc.

Questions have been asked as to how important is this effort and can't the above items just be deposited in the regular trash.

In response, electronics are one of the banes of our modern society. Electronics contain some of the most potent toxic chemicals normally encountered in our daily lives and yet many people are unaware of their existence. Many electronic components are coated with bromide as a fire retardant; some computer monitors contain up to four pounds of lead each; mercury is found in relays, switches, and circuit boards; chromium is used as an anti-corrosion agent; and cadmium is found in chip resistors and semi-conductors.

According to the Environmental Protection Agency, these chemicals have been found to cause an increase in cancer risks; central nervous system disorders; and damage to the brain, DNA, and kidneys. Without proper reclamation and disposal, the chemicals may easily leach into our drinking water, food production, and environment in general.

Items collected will be transferred to Total Reclaim, Inc. of Seattle, one of the largest electronic recyclers in the country with a history of being reputable and responsible.

Steve Failla, Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) Recycling Chair, is serving as a co-organizer of this project. He is highly committed to recycling and has been promoting this important cause for a number of years in our community. Recently, Skookum Environmental Services, Inc., the manager of our Recycle Center, commended Failla for his efforts.

The collection of electronics is planned for October or November. More information will be available in the next issue of the Voice.

From Fire Commissioner to County Commissioner

Bob Pontius

Many Port Ludlow residents know Bob Pontius as one of our Fire commissioners. In September Pontius will be on our ballots as a candidate for County Commissioner Position #3. In his seven years serving the Fire District, he has worked to complete the fire station and add new firefighters and paramedics. A Beaver Valley Road homeowner, he also is a North Bay lot owner. Pontius has been a business owner and operator of a trucking firm, served on the Board of the South Seattle Community College, and has extensive experience in oversight of public services.

Public safety is a major concern for Pontius. He sees the expanded 911 service as a significant piece of countywide emergency communications and is currently serving on the Jeffcom 911 board. In his words, "It was important for people to know that the lights are on and there is someone home to answer the 911 calls 24 hours a day." However, he feels other issues regarding safety are not being addressed—such as better policing in our part of the County. The rapid spread of meth labs and burglaries in rural areas are security issues which as Commissioner he will address while working with the sheriff.

Bob Pontius has a bulldog mentality when it comes to budget issues and is not one to let staff recommendations slide by without challenge. He will push hard for accountability on tasks, budgets and communication. Pontius intends to have regular, on-going coffee talks in each of the communities he will represent. "I want to speak for the people I represent," he recently said. He notes that the Paradise Bay Road expansion project should have included input from local residents. Regular interface with an involved Commissioner would have both alerted people and provided a forum for input.

Concern over rights of citizens recently led Pontius to take a strong stand on the proposed taking of rural property without compensation to landowners. "We pay heavily for services [in this County] and as Commissioner I will insist that the greater Port Ludlow area receive top consideration."

Preparing for a Lifestyle Transition

A new business, Lifestyle Transition Services, has recently started in this area. Founded by Charlene Sherwood, it is designed to assist seniors moving to assisted living or retirement facilities. Services include: choosing a living facility, downsizing, organizing and packing your possessions, estate sale referrals, hiring a moving company, estate planning referrals, preparing your current home for sale, real estate referrals and helping you set up your new home.

Charlene Sherwood.

Sherwood has lived and worked in Jefferson County since 1987 and has over 20 years' experience working as a physical therapist. Her knowledge and experience provide compassion, understanding and the guidance to seniors during this life transition. Sherwood has seen first-hand how difficult it is for seniors to leave their homes and hopes to provide a safe and secure feeling during this transition time.

For a free consultation in the privacy of your own home, contact Sherwood at 385-0352 or visit her website www.lifestyle-transition.com. She will help you decide the services needed for your individual situation.

Book Club Resumes

The Port Ludlow Book Club's "welcome back" meeting kicks off Tuesday, September 12, 6:30 p.m. at the Bay Club. We will discuss an absolutely stunning book by author Jody Picoult. This is a book that is impossible to put down. The Pact: A Love Story is a riveting psychological tale of a traumatic event that shakes the lives and relationships of all those involved. The book explores teenage suicide, a touching love story, an examination of two families in crisis, and a courtroom drama with elements that would put it on the front page of any newspaper. Please join us to discuss this engaging book that poses the questions, "How well do you know your children?" and "How far would you go for someone you love?"

The book selection for October is The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time by Mark Haddon. All are welcome. Questions? Call Martha Dawson on 437-4167.

Emergency Preparedness Team

by Pat Lohrey

On July 31, the Port Ludlow Fire & Rescue (PLFR) made a public commitment to support and promote personal and public safety to 60-plus local residents who attended a wonderful picnic. Guest attendees included members of the Port Ludlow Emergency Preparedness team who serve their neighborhoods as Block Captains and Block Co-Captains, trained members of the Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) and residents concerned about disaster preparedness and community well being.

Guest speakers included Phil Norwine, Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) Emergency Response and Public Safety Chair; Dennis Crawford, Jefferson County Department of Emergency Management (DEM); Peggy Kulm, PLFR Neighborhood Smoke Detector Battery pilot program coordinator; and Stan Thalberg, CERT instructor.

Both Fire Chief Ed Wilkerson and Administrative Chief Arlene Obtinario spoke to the attendees and emphasized the need for citizen involvement in personal and public safety. They expressed their appreciation of the volunteers who are active in Emergency Preparedness. Chief Obtinario said the PLFR is adding a Fire Corps program for citizen participation in a non-response, non-emergency volunteer capacity.

A tour of the Fire Department facility and equipment was provided complete with an opportunity to handle live fire extinguishers on a real fire. The presentation also included the national and state preparations for the possibility of a pandemic flu. Your Emergency Preparedness Team includes this in their planning in coordination with the County Health Department

The Fire Department has pledged its support and will arrange a refresher course for current CERT members and a full CERT class for those interested in becoming trained in this very useful skill. Details will follow.

It is important that all residents in Port Ludlow take emergency preparations seriously. Those preparations can minimize the effects of a disaster on each of us. (See adjacent sidebar for a list of items that should be in a Disaster Supply Kit.)

Disaster Supply Kits

The Jefferson County Department of Emergency Management, under the direction of Robert W. Hamlin, Program Manager, recommends that all homes and businesses put together a disaster supply kit for a three- to ten-day period. A household survival kit should contain the following items:

1. National Oceanic And Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) weather radio with a tone alert and a pocket radio.
2. Flashlight with extra batteries
3. Matches, lighter/fire-starter
4. Knife
5. First aid kit
6. Duct tape
7. Masks – N 95
8. 5-gallon bucket with toilet paper and plastic bags for when used as a toilet
9. Latex gloves
10. Air horn or whistle
11. MREs (meals ready to eat or freeze dried meal packets)
12. Emergency blanket (solar reflective blanket)
13. Tarp
14. Rope
15. Clean white hand towel

Other: extra clothing, toiletries, sleeping bags, water, bleach, food, etc.

This is a “grab and go” list of items to be stored in the 5-gallon bucket and will provide care until you can access the rest of your emergency supplies. All items are available at local hardware stores.

Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) Report

by Elizabeth Van Zonneveld

The August meeting of the Village Council was held at the Bay Club on Thursday, August 3. The Council's regular business meeting followed a presentation by Legislator Jim Buck on the effects a tsunami created off Washington or Oregon's Pacific beaches might be expected to have on our Puget Sound region. Jeff Shipley, owner of Port Ludlow Place office park, spoke to the Council about his concern about lack of adequate police protection in this area and asked the Council to address this problem. Council President Elizabeth Van Zonneveld announced that Jefferson County Sheriff Brasfield would speak at a Council meeting in the near future.

Administrative Chief Arlene Obtinario of Port Ludlow Fire and Rescue reported on the training day hosted by the District and spoke about preparing for emergencies such as fire or earthquake related disasters. (See related stories on pages 8 and 12.) The District is making plans to offer Civilian Emergency Response Team (CERT) training this fall.

Port Ludlow Associates (PLA) Acting President Diana Smeland gave a progress report on the Olympic Terrace II development and the revised planning efforts for Ludlow Bay Village. During her remarks, Smeland clarified a reference in her August Voice article about the zoning or land use designations for Tract E of Ludlow Cove II. Following her report, Barbara Nightingale, Jefferson County planner for Port Ludlow, reported the hearing for the Trendwest proposed amendment to the Development Agreement would be Friday, September 22.

Larry Nobles noted later that there is a problem with Trendwest's CC&Rs. He stated that PLA's August Voice article is correct but misleading.

Van Zonneveld noted that Trendwest does have strong CC&Rs but they are member rules not Covenants and Restrictions on the land, which would convey if Trendwest later sold the property. Reporting for Friday Market, she said a number of new vendors have become regulars. She encouraged attendees to "tell your friends and neighbors" about the market and make use of it yourselves. Reporting for the Recycling Committee, Van Zonneveld reminded everyone that electronics such as TVs, cell phones and old computers should not be disposed of in regular household waste. The Committee, headed by Steve Failla, is planning an Electronics Waste collection effort to be held in October. Speaking for the Utilities Committee, Van Zonneveld said studies are continuing on a series of sewer and water districts and that the Committee had met in July with personnel from Karcher Creek Sewer District. This effort is part of the Committee's study of both Public Utilities Districts and Special Purpose Districts to evaluate the pros and cons of possible future management of Port Ludlow's sewer and water utilities.

In other Committee reports, Trails Chair Mike Porter discussed maintenance issues on the Timberton and Olympic Trails and the Rainier Loop Trail. Work is proceeding on the Grant Sharpe Memorial area. Porter described proposed trail work including moving the entrance to the Ludlow Falls Interpretive Trail, plans to designate Port Ludlow as a Walking Town with signs on entrance roadways, and submitted a 2007 budget to the Council. Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla Commander Kevin Ryan reported they had secured a source to supply a replacement speed control sign for Ludlow Bay as requested by the Council.

Among actions taken by the Council were:

- Approved expenditure of $162.75 for the replacement of the Ludlow Bay sign
- Approved rental of a storage unit to house PLVC's various festival and market banners, tents, archived files, etc.
- Agreed to hire a recording secretary if funding can be found in the budget for the next year beginning in October.

Larry Nobles moved that the Council change its fiscal year to a calendar year to allow new Council members time to plan and adopt priorities and budgets after September elections and the start of a new budget year. This motion also passed.

Vice President Tony Durham reported that the Council has begun meeting with Committee chairs to discuss their funding needs and work plans for next year in order to prepare a budget and assist the Council in adopting priorities. Allen Panasuk stated that a second draft of Council Priorities and Planning would be discussed at the next workshop.

Future speakers at Council meetings will include a public health specialist whose topic will be Pandemics: Bird Flu, speaking at the Thursday, September 7 meeting.

The Jefferson County Sheriff is scheduled to speak at the October meeting, and the Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT) will talk about Hood Canal Bridge progress in November.

The PLVC will sponsor a Candidate's Forum in October for candidates running for state, county and local offices. Date and time will be announced in September and all residents are invited to meet, hear and question the participants.

Regular monthly meetings of the PLVC are held on the first Thursday of each month, and will be held Thursday, September 7, at the Beach Club, and Thursday, October 5, at the Bay Club. Monthly workshop meetings are scheduled on the third Tuesday of each month and will be held Tuesday, September 19, at the Beach Club, and Tuesday, October 17, at the Beach Club. These meetings are open to all community residents and begin at 9:00 a.m.

Every regular monthly Council meeting includes agenda time for public input or comment, with each speaker limited to a nominal two minutes. Residents with topics or issues requiring additional time can request/recommend agenda topics through any Council member, or via e-mail to tstone@cablespeed.com.

September Hiking Club Activities

by Dan Darrow

Friday, September 8: Sol Duc Hot Springs

Enjoy an easy 6-mile hike on the trails in the area followed by a chance for a swim in the Hot Springs. Some people are making this a mini-getaway by camping or staying in the cabins. Of course, there will be the usual group driving out on the day of the hike. Meet at 8:00 a.m. at the Bridge Deck to arrange car pools and get directions to the trailhead. For additional information, contact Larry and Judi Scott at 437-9299.

Friday, September 15: Maynard Burn

This is one of the extreme hikes with a 3,137-foot elevation gain on the 7-mile round trip hike. The extremely steep climb along an old fire line leads to the spectacular, sunny high country of Gray Wolf Ridge. Meet at the Trails Kiosk near the recycle bins at 8:00 a.m. to arrange car pools and get directions to the trailhead. For additional information, contact David Blessing at 437-9426.

Monday–Friday, September 18–22: Fall Getaway in the North Cascades

Enjoy a wide variety of hikes and camaraderie. You should have already booked a room or arranged for a campsite. For information, contact Dick Ullmann at 437-5010 or Mike Porter at 437-4101.

Friday, September 29: Upper Lena Lake

An extreme hike with 4,000-foot elevation gain over the 13.4-mile round trip. Of course, you could turn around early and just enjoy the moderate hike of 6.4 miles and 1,250-foot elevation gain to Lower Lena Lake. Meet at the Trails Kiosk near the recycle bins at 8:00 a.m. to arrange car pools and get directions to the trailhead. For information, contact Mike Porter at 437-4101.

Every Wednesday: Timberton Loop

Walk the five-mile Timberton Loop. Enjoy views of the Olympic Mountains and Mount Rainier. Meet at the trailhead on Timberton Road at 9:00 a.m. For information, contact Doris Monti at 437-0716.

Wednesday, October 4: Fall Planning Meeting and Dinner

Meeting starts at 5:00 p.m. with dinner at 6:00 p.m. at the Beach Club. Attendees will plan the fall and winter schedule. Be ready to tell others about your favorite outing and put it on the schedule. Leaders, followers, prospective hikers and spouses are welcome. Sign up at the Beach Club and indicate what you will be bringing: soup, salad, or bread. Don't forget to bring your own place setting, including a bowl and soup spoon, as well as your own beverage. Coffee and tea will be available. A $1 donation will be collected at the door. For information, contact Dick Ullmann at 437-5010 or Bernie Robinson at 437-0703.

Clean Closets for October's Une Boutique Unique

Community Enrichment Alliance (CEA) is encouraging everyone to clean their closets and bring their elegant, classic, and casually smart clothes to the CEA Ticket Table, located in the Bay Club, any Wednesday between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. They will gladly give you a tax-deductible receipt. For clothes questions, call Dee McConnell at 437-7648 or Rebecca Rimbach at 437-8170.

2006-2007 Dine and Discover Season

Another season of speakers and dinners is about to begin. Dine and Discover is a community event that takes place on the first Monday of each month at either the Bay or the Beach Club. It is a program that is open to all members of the Port Ludlow community.

Speakers are invited to present a program. Drinks and appetizers take place from 5:30 to 6:00 p.m. Dinner is from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m., and the program is over by 9:00 p.m. You are responsible for bringing a dish to share that serves ten as well as your own beverage and table setting. The cost at the door is $2 per person. Those interested in attending sign up at either club and indicate the type of dish you plan to bring.

The first program will be on Monday, October 2 at the Bay Club. (See related story on this page) Details will also be on the bulletin boards. Be sure to sign up early, as seating is limited. Call Hilda and Michael Cahn with questions at 437-8223. We look forward to another season of interesting and informative topics.

2006-2007 Schedule

- October 2 Bay Club
- November 6 Beach Club
- December 4 Bay Club
- January 8 Beach Club
- February 5 Bay Club
- March 5 Beach Club
- April 2 Bay Club
- May 7 Beach Club

"Faith, Evolution, and Intelligent Design"

Professor J. Topel, S.J., will present the first of a series of three educational talks, "Faith, Evolution, and Intelligent Design," on Thursday, September 7, 3:00–5:00 p.m., at the Bay Club.

The presentation is open to all. Sign up at the Bay Club desk. There is a $1 fee for non-Bay Club members. For additional information, contact either Ken or Dee McConnell at 437-7648 or Rebecca Rimbach at 437-8170.

Afghanistan: Topic at October D&D

Life behind the lines in Afghanistan will be the focus of a presentation at the October Dine & Discover to be held Monday, October 2, 5:30 p.m., at the Bay Club.

Lieutenant Colonel Steven Ford, son of Port Ludlow resident Bob Ford, will speak about his experiences as Commander of a Provincial Reconstruction Team (PRT) in Afghanistan from January to October 2004. The PRT located in Ghazni, south of Kabul, was organized by the US Army to conduct security and reconstruction operations in the area. While there, LTC Ford was assisted by a local interpreter, Mohammed Amin ("Rasa"), who is now living and attending college in the US with the Ford's family in Tacoma. Rasa will accompany Ford to Port Ludlow and provide his perspectives on life in Afghanistan with the Americans.

LTC Ford is an Army Reservist with over 25 years of service and currently is commander of the 448th Civil Affairs Battalion located at Fort Lewis. He works for Microsoft as a Senior Program Manager building new data centers around the world.

Sign up for this Dine & Discover at the Bay Club. Bring a dish to serve ten, as well your own table service and beverage. $2 per person will be collected at the door. For more information, please contact Hilda or Michael Cahn, 437-8223.

MovieMakers: Sampling a New Time

MovieMakers, for a second month, will be trying a new day and time for meetings. The group will meet at the Jefferson County Public Library on Thursday, September 21, 5:00–7:00 p.m. If you have suggestions for a more convenient time to meet, please let us know.

“Why am I reading this?” you may ask. Our response: MM (MovieMakers) is a group of fun folk (all ages) interested in keeping current with technology, using skills we possess and adding to that list. Still wondering? Take a look at the credits on the next movie or TV show you view and you will soon realize that lots and lots of folks are behind the camera. There are always opportunities to apply your talents from current or past careers such as marketing, public relations, clerical and of course as actors, writers, camera operators (both still and motion). We are currently discussing our next venture, and working through the editing of The Courthouse.

Come and see how we may start a mutual admiration society. Questions? Contact Producers Matt Wallace at 437-2071, moviemakers@earthlink.net, or Maureen Poole 437-2165, moviemakersvp@aol.com.

Singles to Dine at T's

Singles will dine at T's Restaurant on Washington Street in Port Townsend (near the Boat Haven), Wednesday, September 13. Reservations are for 5:00 p.m. The group looks forward to trying this popular restaurant and their Northwest cuisine. T's features a lighter bistro menu from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m., in addition to their regular menu.

Please call either of our co-hostesses, Millie Kyle at 437-7828 or Roz Greene at 437-9870, by September 8 to place your reservation and to arrange carpooling. Carpooling is urged in order to save gasoline, and carpoolers should meet in the North Bay parking lot above the Bridge Deck. Departure will be promptly at 4:20 p.m.

There are five birthdays to celebrate in September, so the group will have fun. See you there! Remember to wear your nametag. Please invite your friends to join us.

Watercolorist at Artists' League Meeting

The use of ink and color pencil to enhance watercolors will be the topic of the Artists' League meeting on Wednesday, September 20, 1:00 p.m., at the Beach Club.

Sally Cays, a self-taught watercolorist, is the featured artist. She paints portraits and does both still lifes and florals. She is a signature member of the Northwest Watercolor Society and a juried member of Women Painters of Washington, an organization of professional painters. She also teaches classroom and online workshops utilizing her techniques of color glazing to achieve the rich depths of color and hard-edged realism.

Guests are welcome to attend. A donation of $3 is suggested. For more information about the Artists' League and its programs, contact President Phyllis Hansen at 437-5152 or at bphansen@cablespeed.com.

The Artist of the Month is mixed media artist Wanda Mawhinney. She creates arresting visuals using such materials as acrylics, paper, gel medium and spackling compound to build layers of texture and paint into interesting patterns. She considers herself an experimental artist whose passion is texture and color.

Help celebrate Wanda's artwork with her at a reception Friday, September 8, 3:00–5:00 p.m., in the American Marine Bank lobby.

Exhibits continuing through the end of September that feature League artists are: Joy Herring's watercolors at Coldwell Banker and Bev Nelson's oils at Homer Smith Insurance.

Customer Appreciation Day!

"Rusty"

Courtesy of
Coldwell Banker

Coldwell Banker Forrest Aldrich, Inc. invites all our past, present and future clients to enjoy hot dogs and sodas on them, Friday, September 1, 11:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m., at the Friday Market.

Stop by their booth, say hello and treat yourself to something to eat. They appreciate your business!

Come One—Come All!

The 31st Annual Port Ludlow Arts, Crafts & Antiques Fair will be held Labor Day Weekend, Friday and Saturday, September 1 and 2, 10:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m. both days at the Beach Club. The North Bay Lot Owners Association (NBLOA) sponsors this event.

One-of-a-kind arts and crafts offered for sale will include children's books, painted rocks, hand-made jewelry, knitted and sewn articles, original paintings and photography, handmade greeting cards, needlework, soy candles, stained glass items, hand-painted furniture, antiques and much more.

For additional information, call either Penny Sanzaro at 437-7970 or Eve McDougall at 437-9168.

Join the fun at the Beach Club. See you there!

Support Aero Museum with Your Rummage

Another great Rummage Sale is scheduled to benefit the Port Townsend Aero Museum on Saturday, October 7. If you wish to donate items, the Museum is a 501(c) (3) charitable organization and your donations are tax deductible. They are happy to pick up your items. Call 531-0252 days or 437-0863 evenings to arrange for pick up.

Come shop, enjoy the fun, from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 7, at the Jefferson County Airport.

Music, Music, Music and More: Frank and Irma Siler

by Vallery Durling, Reporter

Frank and Irma Siler.

The Silers' interest in all things musical brought them together. They met in 1975 while singing in the choir of St. Michael's Episcopal Church in Corona del Mar, CA, and married the following year. Frank has two children; Irma has four children, ten grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Frank's other love is mountain climbing—having summited Mount Baker, Shucksan, Rainier, Saint Helens, Adams, Monte Cristo and Whitney—besides hiking throughout the Olympics. The Silers vacationed with three cousins from the Seattle area in the early 1980s. Frank climbed mountains with one and sailed with another.

Returning from a San Juan Island sail in 1985, they anchored in Port Ludlow and had dinner at the Harbor-master. A realtor was their table neighbor and offered to show them Port Ludlow—including a lot on Harms Lane. Hopping onto a large stump, they had a spectacular view of the Cascades and sparkling waters of Puget Sound. Not planning to move, they changed their minds in the fall when Frank's employer offered an early retirement package. They snapped up the offer, secured the lot, built their current home, and immediately began contributing to their new community.

Frank was Ludlow Maintenance Commission (LMC) President in 1994, served on the LMC Architectural Control Committee (ACC), Port Ludlow Development Forum, co-founded the Council of Ludlow Owners Association (CLOA), chaired the committee to write Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) Articles of Incorporation and continues to conduct their elections.

He directs the Village Sounders, a barbershop group formed nearly six years ago with a handful of men. Now eighteen strong the Sounders are community favorites who perform for local events, sing for shut-ins at Christmas time, as well as for benefits throughout the county.

He is President of the Port Ludlow Singers and enjoys golf and tennis.

Frank and Irma serve their church, St. Charles Anglican in Poulsbo. He is a vestryman, senior warden, lay reader, and acolyte. She has taught Sunday school, directed Christmas/Easter choirs, Christmas Santa Lucia programs, has been Wedding Coordinator for years, and facilitates a Bible Study class in Port Ludlow. Both Frank and Irma are lay pastors.

Irma chaired the Jefferson County Hospital Auxiliary, was manager/buyer for the gift shop and still volunteers. On the Ludlow Follies Board from 1986 to 1994, which she directed for 2 years, she chaired the Ladies Wednesday Luncheons and taught the Aquasize class for 15 years. Irma was in the Port Ludlow Ladies chorus and currently sings with the Port Ludlow Singers.

Together the Silers have performed in the musical events of Port Ludlow—The Follies, the Broadway series, Music a la Carte, That's Entertainment, and Magic of Broadway. Fans remember Irma, a vivacious blond Swedish beauty, as "Marilyn" singing Happy Birthday, Mr. President, Gonna Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair in a make-shift shower stall, and the duet You Don't Send Me Flowers Anymore.

Born in Savannah, GA, raised in Tampa, FL, Frank attended Florida Military Academy, lettered in four sports and played in band. A Duke University Mechanical Engineering graduate, he was active in Chapel Choir and student director of the Men's Glee Club, which sang with Perry Como during a recording session for Como's Christmas show.

The Korean War interrupted Frank's employment at The Timken Co. Stationed at Fort Dietrich, MD in Biological Warfare Research, he joined a barbershop quartet that competed internationally. After the Army, he returned to Timken and joined another quartet, the Humdingers, that became district champions and international finalists, and often performed at shows headlined by the Buffalo Bills, of The Music Man fame.

Irma was born in Hartford, CT. Her parents were semi-professional singers and performed in Adirondack Mountain resorts. As a little girl, Irma usually stayed with grandma but once she recalls her mother, dressed in full formal regalia, swelling herself up to sing Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life. Irma made a beeline under the table and was never invited again. Residents who never knew Irma's mom, Inde Wahlquist, missed something special. Inde lived with the Silers for 12 years until her death one day before her 104th birthday. She even joined the chorus for a time and no one could beat her at Scrabble.

Irma's father toured with the Chattagua circuit where William Jennings Bryan was often a speaker. Irma won a scholarship and majored in music education at the University of Pennsylvania. She studied voice and was a Glee Club soloist. While living in Richmond, VA, Irma raised a family, taught school, gave private music lessons, volunteered for the Republican Party and chaired several charitable organizations. After relocating to California she chaired the Los Angeles Philharmonic Society in Orange County.

For the Silers there always was music but so much more. We thank them for what they've given us. In Irma's words, "We love Port Ludlow. Frank and I are blessed to be in God's beautiful place."

AARP Driver Safety Program

An AARP Driver Safety Class will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, September 26 and 27, 10:00 a.m.–2:30 p.m., at the Beach Club. This certified eight-hour course is designed to refresh driver skills and help aging drivers learn to compensate for declining physical skills.

Senior drivers have the most difficulty making left hand turns and failing to yield to oncoming traffic. The new Driver Safety Manual, Edition Six, suggests options to help you drive more safely for a longer period.

The Revised Code of Washington states that those 55 and older, who take an eight-hour certified traffic safety course, are eligible to receive a discount from all companies who sell car insurance in the State of Washington. To register, call Linda Pfafman, Jefferson County Sheriff's Office, 385-3831. Ext. 521.

Hayrides and Historic Tours

Take a hayride and enjoy one of two historic tours of Port Townsend. Saturday, September 2, 1:00 to 4:30 p.m., see the Uptown District; and Sunday, September 3, visit Point Hudson. Tickets are $8 for adults and $5 for kids, 12 and under. Part of Main Street's ParTy in PT festivities. For more information see http://www.ptguide.com/mainstreet/news/events/06\_partyinpt.html.

Two Plant Growth Enhancers

by Eline Lybarger, Contributing Editor

One of my rhododendrons was looking sickly despite abundant water and fertilizer. Its leaves had dark green veins but the rest of the leaf was light green; some even had yellow spots. A friend and almost retired plant pathologist explained that my rhododendron was not able to use the water and fertilizer because it was lacking magnesium. Other plants like camellias and roses also benefit from an occasional dose of magnesium. In fact my garden knows it is spring because they all get a dose of salts every spring. Yes, Epsom salts are magnesium sulfate, which can be absorbed by plants. Since more is not necessarily better, I usually apply 1/2 to 1 cup of dry material around the drip line of each plant for two consecutive months. Later in the summer I mix the Epsom salts with water and pour it on the ground around my roses.

Then I came across HB-101, an organic growth enhancer recommended for orchids. It works on more than orchids and has been used for the past 28 years both commercially and by hobbyist. It is an organic material derived from extracts of cedars, pines, cypress trees and plantains, and is neither a fertilizer nor chemical. It is diluted in water and sprayed on the plant to help it several ways. In the roots, moisture and nutrients including minerals are absorbed only after being broken down by microorganisms.

HB-101 has saponin and ionized calcium and together they enhance the productivity of the microorganisms, resulting in healthier roots. Healthier roots are able to pass along to the leaves, at a higher rate, the necessary nutrients that have been dissolved in water. When the leaves of the plant are sprayed with HB-101, the raw materials from the roots are combined with ionized calcium and sodium from HB-101. The leaves combine air, sunlight, nutrients from the roots and photosynthesis takes place to produce glucose (sugar) used by the plant. In the leaves the HB-101 strengthens the cells and makes the photosynthesis process more efficient, producing more glucose and greener leaves.

HB-101 contains not only sodium, and calcium but also iron and silicon. As a concentrate it has a pH of 4.0 (28 mg/gallon) but at 1000x dilution (typically used for plant application) the pH is 6.5. It is non-toxic to livestock, poultry, and fish. So for greener leaves and bigger blooms put your plants on HB-101, and let me know if it works.

From the Jefferson County Administrator's Desk

by John F. Fischbach, Jefferson County Administrator

A warm hello is extended to all of you. I can't quite believe summer is almost over and we're heading toward the shorter days of autumn. I want to take this opportunity to keep you abreast of activities in your area from the County's perspective.

First, I'd like to answer two questions that were posed to me about the Paradise Bay Road project. The first question was, "Will there be a new stop light on Paradise Bay Road?" No. Current traffic data and traffic growth projections indicate that the Paradise Bay Road / Oak Bay Road intersection can operate safely with its current configuration of a four-way stop. The second question was, "Will there be water for plants and landscaping?" Yes. The landscaping work includes a drip irrigation system for watering the median landscaping.

Second, I want to let you know that we've selected Stephen Causseaux, Jr. as the County's new Hearing Examiner. He is a partner in the law firm McCarthy Causseaux Rourke and has served as the Pierce County Hearing Examiner for the past 22 years with extensive land use experience. He received a Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from the University of Tennessee in 1967 and has been licensed to practice law in Washington since 1972. A selection committee comprised of County management staff interviewed five applicants as part of the process.

Stephen Causseaux will preside over a public hearing on the Port Ludlow Associates (PLA)/Trendwest proposal for a 120-unit timeshare on Tract E of Ludlow Cove on Friday, September 22. The hearing will begin at 2:00 p.m. in the auditorium of the Bay Club.

The subject of the public hearing is consideration of an application submitted by PLA and Trendwest. The Consolidated Application includes an amendment to the Port Ludlow Development Agreement to change the development standards on Tract E, allowing for the 120-unit timeshare development, and a Shoreline Substantial Development Permit that is required for project construction.

Following this hearing, the Hearing Examiner will provide recommendations on both the amendment and the Shoreline Permit to the Board of County Commissioners (BoCC). The BoCC will hold another public hearing on the subject of the applications before they make a final decision. The legislative decision by the BoCC will be the final decision, and can be appealed only in Superior Court.

If you have any questions about the public hearing or any other Port Ludlow land use matters, please contact Barbara Nightingale, our Lead Planner for Port Ludlow in the Department of Community Development, at 379-4472 or via e-mail at bnightingale@co.jefferson.wa.us. You're also welcome to check out our Port Ludlow page on the County's website at www.co.jefferson.wa.us/commdevelopment/port\_ludlow.htm.

And, of course, you are always welcome to contact me at 385-9100 or via e-mail at jfischbach@co.jefferson.wa.us.

Computer Club News

If someone asked you who your primary care person was you'd probably give your doctor's name. However, this is wrong! You are your primary care person. You are the key player in your health care. You know your body best. You are the first one to notice when something "Doesn't feel right". You sense changes in your condition. And, you alone know your family history. Prepare yourself for your doctor visit, help him/her help you. How do you do that? Help is out there and it's at your fingertips.

Come to the Port Ludlow Computer Club (PLCC) General Meeting on Monday, September 11, and find out just how from Pat Awisus. Social time is at 6:00 p.m. and the meeting begins at 6:30 p.m. All are welcome to attend—you don't need to be a member.

The Office SIG meets on Monday, September 4, 10:30 a.m.–noon. Bring your questions, or e-mail them to Bob Graham at bgconsulting@waypt.com. Genealogy SIG meets on Thursday, September 14, 1:00–3:00 p.m. and welcomes all PLCC members who are interested in finding their roots. Special Topics SIG is Monday, September 18, 10:30 a.m.–noon. Photography SIG meets Monday, September 25, 10:30 a.m.–noon. Mac SIG meets Saturday, September 2, 9:00–10:30 a.m., and again on Monday, September 25, 6:00–7:30 p.m. Workshops are held every Saturday morning 11:00 a.m.–noon at the Bay Club. All SIGs and Workshops are for members only.

Indian Island: A Retrospective

by Kay Standish, Contributing Editor

The Department of Defense (DoD) is steward of approximately 25 million acres of public lands. These air, land, and water resources directly support DoD's military training and readiness capabilities. They also harbor pristine habitats for a wide variety of unique species, including over 200 threatened and endangered plants and animals. Locally, Indian Island is one of these sites.

In June over 100 local residents took advantage of three tours on Indian Island arranged by the Community Enrichment Alliance (CEA). The tours led by Bill Kalina, DoD's Natural Resource Manager at Naval Magazine Indian Island since 1995 included not only information on the history of the island but also a chance to visit archeological sites and learn about the resident wildlife.

Indian Island is 5 miles long, 1/2 mile wide, and consists of 2,700 acres. It was purchased by the Navy in 1939 and is used for munitions storage and handling. Over the years information about the island's history has evolved. Seven sets of Native American bones were found on the island. After studying the site and the bones, the Jamestown S'Klallam tribe said the remains belonged to them and were actually the bones of Chimacum tribal members killed by order of Chief Seattle of the Suquamish for continued hunting and fishing on Suquamish land despite repeated warnings. All the villagers were killed except for 11 members who were hunting food. The S'Klallam adopted the surviving Chimacums into their tribe.

Archeological digs at Whalan Point on the island have shown Chimacum artifacts dating back more than 2,000 years. The remains are buried in a small secluded meadow surrounded by birch trees and maintained by the Jamestown S'Klallam tribe. Native Americans have treaty rights to collect shellfish on the island beaches and in coastal waters.

The first settlers on Indian Island arrived in the 1870s. James and Maren Anderson of Denmark were among these homesteaders. Anderson Lake, a man-made lake on the island is named after them. The grave of Maren Anderson is located south of where the house stood more than a century ago. The grave is recognized as an immigrant's grave by the Washington State Historical Society.

The island's diverse wildlife population includes over 400 deer, 8 eagles' nests, 6 species of owl, river otters, herons, largemouth bass, shellfish, harbor seals, migrating black bears and cougars.

The island also uses horse-logging methods for its second and third-generation forest growth management. The use of horses instead of logging trucks decreases the impact to the environment, such as diesel and oil leaks or damage to other trees.

In this writer's opinion, Naval Magazine Indian Island is providing a healthy and safe environment to protect native wildlife as well as meeting a defense need.

Ah, The Waterfalls

by Bill Hansen, Contributing Editor

Exploring the ponds and watercourses of Port Ludlow is interesting, but to discover a quiet waterfall in someone's back yard is truly exciting. Water from the Golf Course pond near Teal Lake and Paradise Bay Roads does flow into the Bay (much to my surprise). A series of ponds and bio filters discharge outflow through the "old Morrison property" down to the Bay.

Old timers (read that as long-term residents) know that Alan and Annette Koch discovered their Mariner Place home fourteen years ago and were absolutely captivated by the twenty-foot high waterfall behind their property. The cascade is beautifully framed in trees and ferns and the sound of water from the deck marks this home as a very special place. It is a privilege to be invited to share their scenic paradise.

Editor's Note: Last month Bill Hansen did a feature on drainage and detention ponds throughout the community. Based on information provided to him, he stated that no water from the Golf Course drains into the Bay. We stand corrected. Thanks to the sharp reader who set us straight!

Wooden Boat Building Celebration and Dinghy Fest

The Northwest School of Wooden Boat Building, one of the most unique and picturesque occupational programs in the Puget Sound area, and the Ajax Café celebrate the School's 25th year of operations and 3rd Annual Dinghy Fest, Sunday, September 17, 2:00–8:00 p.m. The celebrations will occur at the picturesque school campus and Ajax Café on the Townsend Bay waterfront in lower Port Hadlock.

There will be fun for all ages with dinghy races, children's activities, live music, great food and a beer garden. The School will have boats on display, wood working demonstrations, tours and much more. Local artists will be displaying their wares, and the Ajax Café will be holding a silent auction to benefit the School.

Over these 25 years, the Northwest School has graduated more than a thousand students of all ages from its diploma and accredited vocational boatbuilding programs, drawing students from across Washington State and around the world. The students will have completed a rigorous, year-long curriculum ranging from drafting and lofting to large vessel construction and yacht interiors. A large proportion of the School's graduates have become professional boat builders and shipwrights. About 40 percent of the School's students come from outside the state, and many remain here as professional shipwrights. It is estimated that over 60 percent of the professional boatyard workers in the Port Townsend area are graduates. Graduates also build and repair boats in many Puget Sound boatyards and in seaports from Tanzania to The Netherlands and Japan.

Historic lower Port Hadlock is a 10-minute drive from Port Ludlow. If you can't make it to the Celebration and Dinghy Fest, but would like to visit the School, regularly scheduled tours are daily at 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. Contact Student Services Administrator Kendra Seaman at 385-4948 to register.

First Wednesday Luncheon

September marks the start of a new season of First Wednesday Luncheons. The first meeting will be at the Bay Club on Wednesday, September 6, at 11:00 a.m. Our guest speaker will be Denise Fry, who will give a PowerPoint presentation on the Washington State Guaranteed Education Tuition (GET) Program. Anyone desiring to help their children or grandchildren fund their college education will find this of particular interest. Because we are no longer using a permanent attendance list, everyone planning to attend is requested to sign up by Friday, September 1. Sign up at either the Bay or Beach Club; call Nancy Bonderson at 437-7624 or Vicki Tallerico at 437-4065.

To support the Tri-Area Food Bank, guests this month are asked to donate baby food or the cost of a restaurant lunch in cash or check the Food Bank. We will also be collecting toiletries monthly. For example, donate all those hotel shampoos and other items brought home from vacations—they are much appreciated.

Invite new friends and neighbors to join you at a First Wednesday lunch, and wear your nametag.

Looking Ahead

This season's meeting dates and locations are listed below. Mark your calendars now so you won't miss any of them:

Ludlow's Ananda Hills Farm on Tour

Ananda Hills Farm of Port Ludlow has joined this year's Jefferson County Farm Tour, Sunday, September 24. The tour gives the public a unique chance to visit several working farms in Jefferson County. Ananda Hills Farm is located on Embury Road, off of State Route 19 (Beaver Valley Road).

Being part of this year's tour is a first for farmers Jenny Watkins and Theodore Carlat, who are using organic and biodynamic farming methods to develop a diversified farm for pastured livestock and produce. Those methods, according to the farm's mission statement, are meant to "enhance the health of the land, the customer, and the local economy."

The goal of biodynamic methods, says Carlat, is to create a farm that includes a diversified mix of plants and livestock. Ananda Hills has a flock of Shetland sheep (a single breed that produces 11 different color grades of wool) and heritage chickens. By rotating sheep and chickens from one pasture to another every few weeks, the overall health of the farm is enhanced.

Another important element of Ananda Hills is educational. Farm tour visitors will see the Shetland sheep and chickens on pasture and in the barn; demonstrations such as wool spinning; children's activities; and they will also be able to purchase wool, eggs, broilers, and seasonal produce.

Detailed information about the Farm Tour, including maps, will be available on the website <http://ag.jefferson.wsu.edu> or call Theresa Beaver, Washington State University (WSU) Food and Farm Network Coordinator, at 379-5610, ext. 230.

✳ Denotes Beach Club Members-Only Activity

LMC Board of Trustees Meeting

Saturday, September 9, 9:00 a.m.

All North Bay residents are welcome. ✳

LMC Trustees August Meeting

by Carol Shamhart

Use of the Ludlow Maintenance Commission (LMC) tennis courts by members of the South Bay Community Association (SBCA) was discussed. Visiting SBCA Board member, Connie Wilkerson, explained the South Bay tennis courts are now in excellent condition and available for use by residents in both North and South Bay. LMC President Terry O'Brien concurred that while opening all seven tennis courts in North and South Bay would be a workable plan, the current LMC governing documents specify that only LMC members (including contract members) and their guests are entitled to use LMC facilities.

General Manager Brian Belmont presented the Trustees with a financial package detailing LMC income and expenses from January through July 2006. Other highlights of Belmont's report included:

- Thank you to the Dine and Discover group for their recent $500 donation to the Beach Club.
- Improvements to the Beach Club security system continue to be researched.
- Indoor pool cover samples are being obtained.
- A new sliding door has been installed in the indoor pool area.
- An emergency phone is being installed in the Beach Club lobby.
- Trustee Jerry Nelson has volunteered to troubleshoot problems with the ceiling fans in the Bayview Room.
- The Beach Club will be the North Bay Communications Center for the Port Ludlow Emergency Response Team. Appropriate wiring will be installed.
- The new locks and keys for the Kehele Park tennis courts are on back order.

In other Board related items:

- Trustees approved up to $750 for the Communications Center.
- LMC finances are in good condition.
- Trustees approved Dick Campbell as a member of the Greenbelt Committee.
- Trustees approved Stephanie Buehler as a member of the Covenants and Regulations Committee. Trustee Vaughn Bradshaw will join the Committee as the Board representative.
- A motion to approve funds for two independent appraisals up to $1,500, related to LMC property between Oak Bay Road and the Bridge Deck, failed.
- The Taylor shed appeal will be held on Wednesday, September 6, at 3:30 p.m.
- The Eckstrom trees/view appeal will be held following the Taylor shed appeal on Wednesday, September 6.

See the upcoming fall issue of the LMC LOG for detailed Committee information and lists of current Committee members. Minutes of all LMC meetings are available on the website, lmcbeachclub.com. Policies and procedures for the various LMC Standing Committees are also posted on the site.

The next meeting of the LMC Board of Trustees will take place Saturday, September 9, 9:00 a.m., at the Beach Club. Members are encouraged to attend. ✳

LMC Investigating Land Sale

by Stan Kadesh

Ludlow Maintenance Commission (LMC) members should take note that President Terry O'Brien has appointed an Ad Hoc Committee to consider sale of the property located above the Bridge Deck. The property is comprised of approximately 36,000 square feet or close to an acre of land.

The parcel would probably be sold to Port Ludlow Associates (PLA) as they have the "right of first refusal" for the purchase of the land. In other words, if someone makes a firm offer to purchase the parcel, before that offer can be accepted, PLA must be apprised of the terms and conditions of the offer. If they so desire, PLA can purchase the land at the same price and terms as the submitted offer.

The site would be suitable for condos and would have a nice view from the upper units. There has been some discussion in connection with the removal of the Bridge Deck in order to provide a better view for the lower level units.

Proceeds of the sale would be earmarked for the expansion and improvements to the Beach Club.

Several items must be resolved before the property can be put up for sale:

1. A short plat must be applied for and granted by Jefferson County.
2. The size of any expansion of the Beach Club should be determined, as County Regulations require one car parking space for every 300 square feet of public space in the Beach Club, and the property proposed to be sold might eliminate required parking spaces.
3. The cost to the LMC to prepare the property for sale will be approximately $7,500, not including any charges that might be levied if a Shoreline Substantial Development Permit is required.
4. The property in question is presently leased until 2008 to PLA for parking. This lease must be dealt with before the property could be offered for sale.
5. Prior to the actual sale of the property, its sale must be put to a vote of the members of the LMC.

At the August 12 meeting of the LMC, the Ad Hoc Committee recommended the Trustees vote to approve the expenditure of $1,500 for the purpose of obtaining two independent appraisals of the property to determine the value of the parcel as a first step. The motion to appropriate funds for the appraisals was not approved.

Some say the proposal to sell the property is now a dead issue. Others say this is only the beginning of the battle.

Remember all meetings are open to the members of the LMC where you have the opportunity to voice your opinion.

North Bay Clean Sweep in October

by Jerry Purdy

Summer is almost over and the beautiful days of autumn will soon be here. It is time to once again send out an alert to the loyal North Bay Clean Sweep Committee that the autumn sweep will be in progress during the week of Monday–Sunday, October 2–8. This is a perfect time to do a final clean up of the area before the gray and wet days of winter arrive.

Clean Sweep is a dedicated North Bay Lot Owner Association (LOA) Committee that never holds meetings, yet gets the work done. Thirty family groups are involved, each one taking responsibility for a few blocks of the neighborhood. Members are reminded by e-mail or through the Voice prior to the first week in January, April, July and October that another sweep is due.

If you would like to lend a hand, please let Jerry or Diane Purdy know at 437-1262. We like to maintain a substitute and waiting list. Occasionally Committee members are gone for an extended period of time and would like someone to take a route temporarily. We encourage all community members to take responsibility for trash seen on our roadways in between scheduled sweeps.

School-age residents are encouraged to get involved in their community by picking up along the streets in their neighborhoods.

North Bay Homeowners Potluck Dinner

by Victoria Tallerico

Get your foot-stomping boots and cowboy hats out of mothballs and come join us at the Port Ludlow Stampede Bar-B-Cue on Saturday, September 16. Doors open at 6:00 p.m. and dinner begins at 6:30 p.m.

To get your lips a-licking, come eat some ribs, chicken and all the fixin's. Sign up at the Beach Club ASAP to reserve your spot and for the list of dishes needed to complete the menu. The whole kit and caboodle is just $6/person and that includes all the ribs and chicken you can eat, plus beer, wine, soft drinks, coffee and tea. Dress attire: Jeans, Western/Farm Shirt, Boots, Hats (optional).

As usual, don't forget your place settings and appetite. We're going to have a rip roaring good time! Yippy - I - O - Ki - Ay!

Beach Club Gallery Room Artist of the Month

Artist Eleanor Swift will be hanging her versatile artwork for display in the Gallery Room at the Beach Club on Tuesday, September 5. Many Port Ludlow residents are familiar with this talented artist's work. View her work during September and October.

Eleanor has been a watercolorist for many years. She has developed a realistic style in a variety of subjects—portraits, landscapes, animals, and her specialty, flowers. She is a teacher of technique and color control. To her students she is known for her patience, guidance, and effectiveness. Eleanor's paintings have a lifelike quality and project the true persona of the subject. She has revived "kinetic painting," a long lost art form, which is truly different.

Don't miss this show as it is truly worthwhile.

North Bay Art Group

The North Bay Art Group (NBAG) continues their weekly workshops at the Bridge Deck every non-holiday weekend. We will not meet on Friday, September 1, due to the Labor Day weekend celebration. We will meet the next three Friday afternoons from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Our versatile group of artists has been doing some interesting art ventures this summer.

Three of our couples, Bev and Dean Nelson, Bob and Liz Moss and Bill and Phyllis Hansen are attending the "Montana Art Workshop" from Monday, August 28 to Sunday, September 3, at the Rising Wolf Dude Ranch in East Glacier, Montana. Built in 1928, this historic old dude ranch will serve as the resident base for the workshop. Heiner Hertling and Bruce Miller will join Director/Artist Wanda Mumm to instruct the group in plein-air painting, sculpting, pastel and studio painting.

Three of our members participated in the Port Ludlow Funfest Collector Poster Contest held on July 21 and 22 during the Port Ludlow Artists' League Art Walk. Those participating were Penny Sanzaro, Phyllis Hansen and Fran Bodman. Congratulations to Penny whose poster was selected for Funfest 2006 publicity.

Clean Sweep Volunteers Needed

Volunteers are needed for four Clean Sweep Committee routes. If you are willing to lend a hand and take responsibility for one of the routes, contact Diane or Jerry Purdy at 437-1262 or by e-mail at gpurdy@cablespeed.com for more details. All routes only cover a few blocks.

Clean Sweep is a dedicated North Bay Lot Owners Association (LOA) Committee that never holds meetings yet gets the work done. Thirty family groups are involved, each one taking responsibility for a few blocks of the neighborhood. Members are reminded by e-mail or through the Voice prior to the first week in January, April, July and October that another sweep is due.

SBCA Board Meeting

Friday, September 1, 9:00 a.m.
All SBCA members are welcome.

South Bay Community Association (SBCA) Update

by Ed Knodle, Secretary, South Bay Community Association

August Report

As a result of the election at the July Annual Meeting, new Board members, John Cragoe, Ed Knodle and Chris Whitehurst were installed.

Assignment of Board Officers

- Tom Stone, President
- Jack McKay, Vice President and Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) Representative
- Chris Whitehurst, Treasurer
- Ed Knodle, Secretary and Covenants and Procedures Committee
- John Cragoe, Member-at-Large, Long Range Planning and Finance Committee
- Connie Wilkinson, Member-at-Large, Tennis Representative and Ludlow Maintenance Commission (LMC) Liaison
- Roy Kraft, Member-at-Large, Board Architectural Review Committee (ARC) Representative

Jack McKay, Vice President resigned due to his pending move to North Bay. Suzanne Graber was appointed to fill McKay's remaining one-year term and Board assignment.

Committee Reports:

Bay Club Expansion Committee: Jack McKay gave a summary of lessons learned:

- Amount of assessment too high
- Didn't counter the "con" arguments effectively
- Needed a more recent survey on members' wants and needs
- Too ambitious proposing both ends of building at one time

He offered suggestions for future plans and directions. After naming all the hard-working members and the roles they played, he dissolved the Expansion Committee.

Architectural Review Committee (ARC) Report: Linda Colasurdo stated that five applications were conditionally approved, one complaint regarding neighbor maintenance reported, and 33 Village applications were filed. She emphasized it is not the function of the SBCA ARC to resolve property line disputes and encouraged all homeowners to possess a valid survey of their property.

Tennis: Connie Wilkinson gave an update of events at the Tennis Courts now that the work is completed.

Financial: Chris Whitehurst presented the financial highlights for June 2006 showing Total Current Assets for the year to be $325,500 and Total Assets to be $434,842. The Income Statement for June 2006 showed total revenues of $33,445 and total operating expenses of $24,860 with a net operating surplus for the month of $8,585. She pointed out that fiscal year 2006 shows a net operating surplus of $60,826. The Maintenance Reserve is $111,217 and the Expansion Fund is $124,891.

Board of Director Reports:

President Stone reported on the August 3 PLVC meeting, which is detailed elsewhere in the Voice. (See article on page 13.)

Operations Report: In Mike Morgan's absence, Linda Colasurdo indicated there are five new members this month, four re-sales and one Associate Member making a total of 528 households, including 21 Associate memberships. Two new employees have been hired. Member electronic check-in is close to being ready. The parking lot resealing project is complete. Music on the Green was a great success, and the Tennis Courts are now open.

Old Business: President Stone reported there is a delay in the Port Ludlow Associates (PLA)/SBCA Capital Contribution matter, but he expects to bring some concrete details to the Board for the September meeting.

New Business: An open discussion on Trendwest support was held. It was decided that a statement of support for or against Trendwest cannot be made yet as the Board wants to know the implications. John Cragoe suggested that a forum be provided on the website to allow SBCA members to give input and will contact the Webmaster to set this up. It was recommended that Barbara Nightingale, Jefferson County planner for Port Ludlow, be asked to explain the impact of Trendwest not accepting SBCA CC&Rs.

Questions/Comments from Members:

- Hoped the new Board will be more responsive to the members' needs and look for input from them and asked the Board in its future plans to consider a fire suppression system.
- Inquired about reciprocity with North Bay of the Tennis Courts and whether a tracking system was needed or in place. Asked for a data collection system of room utilization at the Bay Club and whether the word "public" in the term "public trail system" should be clarified from a liability and maintenance standpoint. It was recommended that we get a legal review.
- Asked if the Board would now consider modifying/modernizing the shower areas only. Chris Whitehurst stated the Board could make modifications to the building without going to a vote; larger funding requests have to go before the membership.
- Stated that non-members should pay more in fees than they currently do when using Bay Club facilities.
- Cautioned the Board that if the Trendwest issue is not approved, PLA could drop support from the Marina, Golf Course and restaurants.
- Expressed hope that one day Port Ludlow could become a common recreational district.
- Supported idea of two clubs with two separate functions: one sports, the other arts and entertainment.

Next Board meeting is Friday, September 1, 9:00 a.m.

South Bay Arts and Crafts Faire

Just a reminder that the South Bay Community Association (SBCA) is sponsoring an Arts and Crafts Faire at the Bay Club on Wednesday, November 1, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Any South Bay member who wants to display and sell their handcrafted items is invited to participate.

There are still a limited number of spaces and tables for artists and crafters to exhibit their work. Stop by the front desk at the Bay Club to get your application form, if you haven't already done so.

In October, the showcase in the Great Room of the Bay Club will display some of the items to be sold. We expect to have a wide range of lovely things to sell just in time for the holiday gift-giving season. A portion of all sales will be donated to a local charity.

If you have questions or need more information, please contact Ann Radwick at 437-0318. 🏠

South Bay Potluckers

Now that September is here, it's time to give that grill a rest. So get out those casserole recipes and come to the South Bay Potluck on Monday, September 18, at 5:00 p.m.

This is a good time to welcome newcomers and see old friends. Sign up at the Bay Club to bring an entrée, salad or dessert to serve 12. BYOB and your place settings. Coffee, tea and appetizers will be provided. Questions? Call Betty Quisenberry at 437-2001. 🏠

SBCA Cocktail Party

South Bay Community Association (SBCA) members are asked to join their neighbors on Friday, September 8, 5:00–7:00 p.m., for the monthly South Bay Cocktail Party. As always it will be an opportunity to see old friends, greet new members and catch up on Port Ludlow happenings. Please bring a new and different, or an old standby appetizer that everyone loves. The Association will supply the beverages. 🏠

New Residents in South Bay

Donald and Susan Carlson      Teal Lake Village
 Sharrol and Diane McReynolds   Teal Lake Village
 Denis and Nancy Leahy          Teal Lake Village

Please greet these new neighbors as well as the following new Associate member: Dean Rosenthal and Irene Holt of East Ludlow Ridge

Please note, in the July Voice we should have listed James and Mary Ellen Tallman of Ludlow Cove as Associate members. Greetings to them once again!

Royalty in the Garden: Peonies, Delphiniums and Lilies

Mary Robson, noted Northwest garden author and Seattle Times contributing columnist, will present a talk and slide show on peonies, delphiniums and lilies to the Garden Club on Wednesday, September 13, at the Bay Club. Robson will bring copies of several of her books for those wishing to make purchases. Social hour begins at 11:00 a.m. followed by a brief business meeting and the talk. Members and guests should bring a brown bag lunch. Beverages and desserts will be provided.

Mary will be talking about the numerous varieties of plants common to each of these three popular plant species as well sharing the planting and cultural needs that make each species thrive here. Fall is the time to select and add these showy plants to your garden. Get a head start on next spring's floral borders!

This illustrated talk will be helpful to the gardener who wants to distinguish between annual and perennial delphiniums, and who wants to learn how to extend the season of bloom in the perennial border by using peonies and lilies. The fabulous perfumes of many of these plants as well as the wide range of colors which can be achieved through their use, make September's topic a very helpful one for the seasoned gardener as well as the newcomer to maritime gardening.

Contact Sydney Hatch, 437-9111 with questions or for additional information.

Watercolor Classes

Fence Post I and II by Joy Herring.

Submitted photo.

Port Ludlow's Joy Herring announces a fall series of six-week "Watercolor with Joy" classes beginning Monday, October 16, and running through Monday, November 20, at the Bay Club.

Beginning watercolor will meet from 9:00 a.m. to noon and is designed for newcomers to watercolor or those who are still learning how to control paint and water.

An intermediate class follows in the afternoon from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. This class will focus on color theory. It will deal with different color palettes: analogous, transparent, and triads plus the use of shading and tinting. Students may paint from their own photos or work with the subject matter provided by Joy.

Herring received a B.A. degree from DePauw University and did graduate work at both San Diego State and Chapman College. She taught high school in several states and also at the Women's University Club in Seattle and continues to study with nationally known artists. Her transparent watercolors concentrate primarily on landscapes and florals with gardens being one of her favorite subjects. Herring has exhibited at the Port Townsend Gallery, Roby King Gallery, Nordstrom Gift Galleries and the Edmonds Art Festival Museum. Her works are in private collections throughout the U.S. and the world.

Cost for the series of six lessons is $60 for Bay Club members and $66 for non-members. Register at the Bay Club and pick up a suggested supply list. For more information, contact Joy at 437-4171.

Jazz Vocalist of the Year Nominee Opens Ludlow Concert Season

by Barbara Wagner-Jauregg, Arts Council Board Member

Karin Plato, Jazz vocalist and composer.

One of Canada's finest jazz vocalists and composers, Juno-nominee Karin Plato, brings her quartet here on Saturday, September 23, at 8:00 p.m. for a gala Champagne Opening Concert to kick off the 15th anniversary season of Performing Arts in Port Ludlow. Sponsored by the Arts Council, this popular series is experiencing record audiences from all of Port Ludlow and the surrounding area.

With A Song In My Heart is Plato's concert tribute to six vocal jazz legends, whose inspiration and influence are still felt by young and old jazz vocalists alike. Experience the era of melody and song in a program devoted to some of the world's most notable singers who brought these songs to the forefront of jazz—beloved singers from the swing era like Ella Fitzgerald, Sarah Vaughan, Frank Sinatra, Peggy Lee, Anita O'Day and Nat King Cole—each of whom inspired audiences with their marvelous sense of swing and sophistication.

Plato has received accolades from the press for her recordings and her live performances. Since 1996 she has been carving a niche for herself in the world of contemporary jazz. Her eclectic repertoire includes many well-loved classics in addition to several of her own compositions and arrangements. She produced a number of concerts including With a Song in My Heart, the program that she will perform here.

Growing up on the prairies in a small farming community in Saskatchewan, Plato studied piano throughout her childhood. She later attended the University of Saskatchewan where she received her Bachelor of Music in piano and voice. In 1985 she moved to Vancouver to study jazz and arranging at Capilano College. In 1996 and 1998 she studied vocal jazz at the Banff Centre For The Fine Arts with vocalists Sheila Jordan and Jay Clayton.

In the late 1990s Karin seriously began to pursue a career as a jazz vocalist and composer. She began to appear in Vancouver jazz clubs performing a repertoire of jazz standards and originals and also started performing in jazz festivals and concerts in BC, Alberta and Saskatchewan. She has released at least five albums and in 2004 was nominated for a West Coast Music Award for her CD The State Of Bliss. In 2003 and 2004, she was nominated Canadian Jazz Vocalist of the Year at The National Jazz Awards and in 2000 was nominated for a Juno Award, the Canadian equivalent of a Grammy, for her recording There's Beauty In The Rain.

In cooperation with the Port Ludlow Artists' League, the Arts Council is pleased to once again display works by League members in conjunction with each concert. For the Karin Plato performance, the photography of Phil Kollen will be exhibited. A life-long resident of the Pacific Northwest, Kollen is a graduate of the New York Institute of Photography. He likes all areas of photography, especially nature, wildlife and abstract. In his words, "I try to find photos within photos and challenge myself with the question, 'what if?'"

Save eight percent over the price of individual tickets by purchasing a six-concert Flex Pass for $99. Individual tickets to the Karin Plato concert are $18 each. Both Flex Passes and individual tickets can be purchased at the Bay Club or by mail. Send a check and stamped self-addressed envelope to P. O. Box 65210, Port Ludlow, WA 98365. To check on ticket availability, call the Club at 437-2208.

Entertainment Tips for September

by Bev Rothenborg, Arts and Entertainment Editor

The idea for this column was born a few months ago when an alert reader called to tell me how much he enjoyed a concert performed by the all-volunteer Port Townsend Community Orchestra. He suggested I give them more of a write-up than I had been doing.

The following month I wrote a short feature for their upcoming fund-raising event, which turned out to be a sellout helped in part, perhaps, by the Voice story.

This month, I've two ideas for you. The Jewel Box Theatre in Poulsbo, an intimate venue, is selling season tickets for their 2006-07 season, which runs from this month through August 2007. The six plays are quite diversified and range from Wit, a Pulitzer Prize winner, to Nunsense, a frothy vaudeville revue delicious with comic charm. I have personally seen this one and can guarantee it's a side-splitter. Each play offers a matinee choice as well as weekend evenings. And here's another good thing if you're a senior: a Season Pass is only $60 plus you receive one comp ticket if you purchase during September. The theatre is easy to find and there's lots of free parking. Mail your check to P.O. Box 2510, Poulsbo 98370. Or ask them to send you a brochure by calling 360-779-9688. Get going!

Another alert concertgoer told me the new hotel behind Suquamish Clearwater Casino Resort at the Agate Passage Bridge (that's the one to Bainbridge) has free entertainment in their Beach Rock Sports Lounge. On Friday and Saturday, September 15 and 16, you can hear a tribute to the Rolling Stones; on Friday and Saturday, September 22 and 23, it will be a Blues Brothers Review; and on Friday and Saturday, September 29 and 30, enjoy Yesterday, a Beatles tribute—and we all love them!

So, readers, if you have any wonderful tips for interesting and fun things to do, send them on to me. I can be reached at bevrothenborg@waypoint.com or 437-0505. Now that our summer season of outdoor concerts and festivals is over, we'll find our entertainment indoors!

Northwind Features Two Artists

Northwind Arts Center will host an exciting art exhibit from Friday, September 1, through Sunday, October 1. The artists exhibiting are Kim Kopp and Dorothy Rissman; both are shown nationally.

A reception for the show will be held on Saturday, September 2, 5:30–8:00 p.m. in conjunction with Port Townsend Art Walk. A Coffee Talk will be held on Friday, September 15, 7:00 p.m., when both artists will discuss their work and the common ground between them. Both events will be at the Arts Center on Jefferson Street behind the Port Townsend Visitor Center. Hours for the exhibit are from noon until 6:00 p.m., Thursdays through Mondays.

Kopp uses drawing, painting, printmaking and other methods to produce the imagery in her work. She says, "I layer, cover over, alter, scrape back and rework responding to and directing what came before."

Rissman uses large slabs of low fire paper clay to create unique three-dimensional works. This medium allows her to do things that are almost impossible with many standard clay bodies. She says, "I can rip the edges, create totally uneven surfaces, or piece together sections of clay without worrying about the pieces falling apart or cracking."

More information on this show, lectures, workshops, poetry readings and other art events can be found at www.northwindarts.org.

Kitsap Chordsmen Do It Again

The acclaimed Kitsap Chordsmen Barbershop Chorus will present an all new show for their annual production on Saturday, September 9, at 2:00 and 7:00 p.m. "Operation Smile" will be performed at Bremerton's Admiral Theatre. It's sure to be a real sing out and you, too, will be smiling and humming when you leave!

An integral part of the show will feature two internationally recognized quartets—the 2005 International Champions "Realtime" and the 2005 Evergreen District Champions "Vocal Magic." You will be thrilled with their flawless harmonies as they perform familiar as well as original close harmony barbershop arrangements.

Tickets for this program, under the direction of maestro Mike Menefee, may be purchased for $12 and $18 on www.singkitsap.org or by calling 360-337-SING.

A Treasure Hunt: Cottage Redecoration Project

Some of the volunteers at Centrum, the Port Townsend non-profit, are donating their time and resources to renovate and redecorate one of the cottages at Fort Worden that is used as accommodation for visiting faculty and artists-in-residence. They will be patching, painting and primping. The furniture is very old and worn out! These volunteers want to replace the tired, lumpy upholstered pieces.

This is where you come in. The volunteers are seeking sofas, love seats and chairs wanting a second chance to be loved and appreciated. They need end tables, bedside tables and a coffee table, too. Also needed are books, bookends, decorative accessories for tables, silverware, salt and pepper shakers, sugar bowls, serving dishes, fabrics to create throw pillows, bathroom and area rugs, and artificial plants. Anything else that you might have that would add a touch of elegance would be appreciated.

Please call Anne Schneider at 379-8752 to arrange pickup or storage of your treasures. Items are needed by Wednesday, November 1. We can help make this housing special for the special guests who come to Centrum.

Port Ludlow Chamber of Commerce

September General Meeting

Rep. Jim Buck.

The Port Ludlow Chamber of Commerce will hold a community meeting on Emergency Preparedness for the Olympic Peninsula, Wednesday, September 13, 5:30-8:00 p.m. at the Bay Club. State Representative Jim Buck will be the keynote speaker for the evening.

Representative Buck will be presenting this information throughout the Olympic Peninsula during the month of October to all local fire district personnel and emergency management specialists. The Chamber will have representatives from local County disaster relief groups, local fire departments, etc. The meeting will be open to the entire community. (See related article on Representative Buck's presentation to the Port Ludlow Village Council on page 8.)

The Chamber will serve light refreshments. If you would like more information, please e-mail the Chamber at the Gateway Visitor Center at gatewayvcr@olympus.net.

Annual August Barbecue

With Jimmy Buffet whisking us away to "Margaritaville," Port Ludlow Chamber of Commerce members and guests feasted on great barbeque fare and libations, courtesy of the Sterling Couch family, Dana Pointe Interiors, and Edward Jones in Port Ludlow. We may have broken a record with attendance this year—informal head count was 70! It was great to see everyone! Thanks to the Meydenbauer Bay Yacht Club for the use of their facility.

The event served as a great opportunity for Maureen Edelblut, Manager of the Gateway Visitors Center, to introduce the wonderful group of volunteers that donate their time and energies to the Center. Everyone acknowledged their contribution to our community.

Let's hear it for: John Timmis, Edi Dempster, Elly Peters, Jan Knodle, Ed Adams, Roz Plorde, Marv and Margo Romack, Sheila Brunstad, Janice and Ron Gilmore, Judy Fischer, Annette Koch and Ray Eiselt.

July After Hours Mixer

Our July evening mixer, held on July 13 and hosted by American Marine Bank, was a real hit. The well-attended event featured live jazz by the Skip Morris Duo, beautiful hors d'oeuvres from the Inn at Port Ludlow, and great door prizes courtesy of American Marine Bank and the Inn at Port Ludlow.

Crafts by the Dock Fair

The Port Townsend Arts Guild is sponsoring a Crafts by the Dock Fair, Saturday and Sunday, September 9 and 10 at Madison and Water Streets in downtown Port Townsend. The Fair will be open Saturday, 10:00 a.m.–6:00 p.m., and Sunday, 10:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.

This Fair features fine quality juried art by local and national artists. For further information, go to www.ptguide.com or ptartsguild@yahoo.com.

Working Image Needs Jewelry!

Ladies, clean out your drawers and cupboards. Working Image, the boutique that distributes clothing to low-income job seekers, is desperately in need of attractive, unbroken costume jewelry for their clients. When a woman is beautifully dressed for that interview, your string of pearls, attractive pin or pretty earrings might be the perfect finishing touch. Call Bev Rothenborg, 437-0505, if you have questions. Donations may be left at the Bay Club.

Developer's Report

by Diana Smeland, PLA Vice President/Chief Financial Officer and Acting President

We continue to look forward to meeting with groups and residents in order to share ideas or deal with any expressed concerns about Port Ludlow's future. Randy Verrue is in Port Ludlow around the third or fourth week of each month. We are both committed to an outreach program with the members of our community.

In my August Voice article, I misstated that the zoning on Tract E, which we refer to as the Log Dump or Ludlow Cove, is Multi-Family (MPR-MF). My current understanding is that the zoning could be either Single-Family or Multi-Family depending on certain circumstances after talking with Barbara Nightingale, Jefferson County Planner for Port Ludlow.

Q 1: If PLA cannot sell to Trendwest, what will happen to that site?

A 1: Tract E, if developed as originally zoned and planned for, would accommodate approximately 45–50 single-family residential homes. The balance of the 70–75 units would be constructed on other to-be-determined developments throughout the Master Planned Resort (MPR).

There is a development cap of 2,250 residential units within the Port Ludlow MPR. We have approximately 400 residential units remaining before reaching that cap. If the Trendwest project comes to fruition, the 120 units would be deducted from the 400 residential units remaining. While build out to the limit of the cap is permitted throughout a wide area of Port Ludlow's 2,000 acres, PLA's vision of clustering the residential units into villages, thus minimizes the village's footprint and insures that we are able to maximize the amount of open space and minimize the amount of disturbance to the environment.

If Trendwest is unable to build on Tract E, and PLA finds a new "home" for the 70–75 units, these units would be developed similarly to Olympic Terrace I. A development of this size requires approximately 35 acres, as well as approximately 8 acres for the infrastructure of roads, homes, driveways, etc. It is PLA's hope to welcome Trendwest to our community. The approval of the Trendwest project, allowing for the tight clustering of the 120 units is beneficial to the natural environment as well as the economic and financial environment and vitality of Port Ludlow and the Resort's amenities.

I hope you find this information helpful and I look forward to more of your questions. If you are wondering about something, have a question, or even disagree with me on something, e-mail me at dsmeland@portludlowassociates.com. I am attending most Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) meetings and will be available to answer questions there as well.

Resort Happenings

by Kevin Zellmer, General Manager, The Inn At Port Ludlow

Savoring Summer at Port Ludlow Resort

It's that time again of the year again. We are basking in sunshine and gorgeous August and September weather. There is plenty to enjoy in our beautiful surrounding areas, while the fall is eminent. We would like to help you savor these last days of summer by offering some memorable experiences at the Resort and in the community.

- #1 Play 18-holes on the continually upgraded Port Ludlow Golf Course.
- #2 Have lunch with a friend on the new furniture at the Harbormaster Deck.
- #3 Walk along Port Ludlow Marina or rent a boat, kayak or bikes.
- #4 Come to the Inn for a glass of wine on the veranda.
- #5 Surprise that special someone with a night at the Inn...have an in-room spa treatment.
- #6 Take a picnic lunch out to Burner Point and enjoy the boat traffic.
- #7 Hike along Ludlow Falls and enjoy the beauty of our natural surroundings.
- #8 Come visit Chef Deneb at the Fireside or Harbor master for a fabulous dinner.
- #9 Hike many of the Port Ludlow trails and beaches.
- #10 Have hot breakfast at the Fireside Restaurant, now served seven days a week.

Dock Talk

by Kori I. Ward, Marina Manager

Fishery Supply

Do you need boating supplies? Ordering from Fisheries Supply Company at the Marina office is quick, easy, and it saves you a ton of time and money. The system is simple. Find the item you are looking for in their catalog, on their CD (both located at the Marina office), or in the comfort of your own home at www.fisheriessupply.com. Bring your request to the Marina office where a staff member will be happy to figure your cost. The Fisheries truck delivers on Tuesday and Thursday, and orders placed before 9:00 a.m. will be delivered the same day.

Some of the top cost-saving items are zincs, stainless hardware, bottom paint, electronics, plumbing and electrical supplies.

Customer Appreciation Day 2006

Summer is slipping away and before long the holidays will be upon us. The Marina staff has had a very busy summer greeting and helping an increasing number of residents and guests. Today we have a record number of permanent boats in the Marina.

However, before summer turns to fall, the staff and I want to say "thank you" for your patronage. We appreciate the opportunity to have you and your boat in the Marina. We have wonderful folks here in Port Ludlow and we enjoy knowing and working with you.

Last year we said "thank you" by hosting a barbecue and music. We got such positive feedback that we will once again be hosting an annual Customer Appreciation Day on Saturday, September 23, at the Marina Overlook, beginning at 1:00 p.m.

Please mark your calendars. It is a free event, sponsored by the Marina for the permanent moorage tenants. Tickets will be available at the Marina office beginning Friday, September 1, with a cut off date of Friday, September 15. Thanks for a great year.

Funfest Parking

As you know, The Port Ludlow Funfest...by the bay is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, September 16 and 17, and once again we have donated our parking lot for the festivities. If you are planning to attend the Port Ludlow Yacht Club (PLYC) Commodore's Cruise from Monday, September 11, through Wednesday, September 20, you must park in the upper parking lot. My suggestion would be to load your vessel the day prior, commute with a fellow member, or need be I could pick you up from your home. Please feel free to call me at 437-0513 with any questions.

May all your crossings be smooth!

Boating Classes

Port Ludlow's Coast Guard (USCG) Auxiliary, Flotilla 41, will offer two different classes for boaters this month at the Port Ludlow Fire and Rescue Station on Oak Bay Road.

On Wednesday, September 6,

7:00 p.m., a Boating Skills and Seamanship class, entitled "The Rules You Must Follow," will focus on two sets of rules, to whom do the rules apply, what is a vessel, the general responsibility rule, general considerations, conduct in narrow channels, traffic separation schemes, vessel traffic services, stand-on or give-way, rules for special vessels, risk of collision, bend signals, restricted visibility, vessel lights and shapes, vessels at anchor, diving operations, distress signals, drawbridge signals and penalties. This is the sixth in an eight-class series on Boating Skills and Seamanship. A fee of $35 covers all materials for the eight-class series, with an additional $6 collected for each class.

A two-session class on the Global Positioning System (GPS) for Mariners will be held Monday and Wednesday, September 11 and 13, 7:00 p.m. GPS is a worldwide radio-navigation system formed from a constellation of 24 satellites and their ground stations. It uses these "man-made stars" as reference points to calculate positions accurate to a matter of meters. In a sense it's like giving every square meter on the planet a unique address. The fee is $35.

For further information and to register, contact David Aho. His cell phone at 360-302-0113 or send e-mail to daho@cablespeed.com. For the entire 2006 class schedule, go to <http://a1300401.uscgaux.info/pubed.html#gfm>.

Flotilla 41 meetings are held on the fourth Wednesday of each month at the Port Ludlow Fire and Rescue Station. Meetings start at 7:00 p.m.

Oil Spills Can Be Costly

A $12,000 fine was levied against the owner of the 36-foot tugboat Yarder following a spill of nearly 50 gallons of oil into Mats Mats Bay early this year. The owner, who resides in Ketchikan, AK, also was ordered to reimburse the state for $14,000 in costs.

The boat owner failed to hire a contractor to install an oil-containment boom around the leaking vessel, as ordered by the Washington Department of Ecology and the Coast Guard, according to Ecology officials. He also was accused of raising the vessel without an approved salvage plan. Ecology officials ultimately took over the cleanup.

David Byers of the Washington State Department of Ecology reminds boat owners, "State law requires vessel owners to take prompt action to clean up spills and to work cooperatively with the Agency. In this case, the vessel owner did neither."

Museum of Flight

Friday, September 8, is the deadline for reservations and payment for the Community Enrichment Alliance (CEA) trip to Boeing's Museum of Flight. $35 covers your transportation and entrance fee. First there will be a guided tour, but don't miss the World War II display.

Lunch is on your own at the Wing's Café located in the museum. The bus leaves the Bay Club at 8:15 a.m. on Tuesday, September 12, and returns at 5:00 p.m. You can make your reservation any Wednesday between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. at the CEA ticket table in the Bay Club. Or, you may send your check to CEA, P.O. Box 65342, Port Ludlow, WA 98365. Your check is your reservation, but if you have questions please call Sharon Commander at 437-2486.

Know Your Neighbor: Coast Guard to the Fore!

by Jack Kaelberer

Very few people ever stand at a pivotal point in history, let alone Naval history by a Coast Guardsman. One such man is Bob Pardis, a retired electrical engineer.

As the Range Finder Operator in USS Hutchinson (PF-45), a patrol frigate of the Navy manned by a Coast Guard crew, Pardis was at his station on October 25, 1944, during the Battle of Leyte Gulf. Hutchinson was laying a smoke screen at about 11:00 a.m. Pardis saw through his optical lens at about 18 miles the top of the superstructure of the 82,000 ton Japanese battleship, Yamato, under the command of Admiral Kurita, suddenly turn and retreat.

A battleship with nine 18-inch guns against a lonely frigate with three 3-inch guns laying a smoke screen was not a pleasant sight. Later, after the war, Kurita said that he thought the smoke screen was covering a trap and he didn't want to sail into it with so much to lose. The Battle of Leyte Gulf was the turning point when Japan's naval back was broken.

Pardis is also an inventor, having perfected a maneuvering system for boats where low pressure air bubbles from a blower displaces water from the hull. Using Isaac Newton's Third Law of Motion (for every action there is an equal and opposite reaction), he has shown that optimum maneuvering capability can be achieved. His boat, Bubly Magic, is reality proof for boaters to see. A patent for the system is pending under the name "Bublthrust." Pardis typifies a Coast Guardsman who always has safety foremost in mind on the waterways of our nation. Pray for our Coast Guardsman—out every night patrolling our shores for terrorists and drug runners. Semper Paratus! (Always Ready!)

Tide Timber Trail

DOG Talk

by Kevin Earl, Director of Golf (DOG), Port Ludlow Golf Course

Golf Shop News: “Name the Hole” has been completed with several of the names “leaking” out—so I will present a tentative final list.

Tide:

1: Northwind, 2: Baker’s Vista, 3: Portal, 4: Serpentine, 5: Pinched Nerve, 6: Deception, 7: Hidden Creek, 8: Eternity, 9: Blind Choice

Timber:

1: Olympic View, 2: Purgatory, 3: Devil’s Dogleg, 4: Cathedral, 5: Bunk House, 6: Temptation, 7: Chase’s Alley, 8: Cedar Island, 9: Pinnacle

Trail:

1: Deer Hollow, 2: Harborview, 3: Trepidation, 4: Bobcat Hill, 5: Ridgeline, 6: Meadow, 7: Terrace, 8: Cascade, 9: Compass Rose

If you would like to submit an alternative to these “tentative” final names, please drop by and submit a name, which may be considered—up to the point we order the new yardage guides in the fall of this year.

Staffing News: With the season winding down, many of the seasonal staff will be leaving us to go back to school or chasing the sun for the winter. Many thanks to our departing staff, you were a great addition, had a terrific year, and good luck until next year.

Member Charge Cards: Many of you have already picked them up and used the new member charge cards at the Harbormaster, Fireside and Marina. As a reminder, if you are a member in good standing, you should pick up your card in the office at the Golf Course.

Tournament News: Congratulations to David and Linda Aho for winning the 2006 Mr. and Mrs. Golf Tournament. Everyone had a great time at the Member/Guest Tournament and we enjoyed seeing some old Port Ludlow residents back for a visit. If you are unfamiliar with either of these tournaments, stop by and our staff can give you the details.

Well winter will soon be here and now is the time to set up your training schedule for 2007! Stop by and talk to one of our pros to get a jump on your 2007 goals!

Men’s Golf Association

by Hugh Pennington, President

The Port Ludlow Men’s Golf Association (MGA) schedule for September begins with the Women’s Golf Association (WGA) hosting the MGA on Tuesday, September 5. Tee times are scheduled to begin at 8:03 a.m. on Tide/Timber.

On Wednesday, September 6, the game will be two-man teams Chapman with the first tee time at 8:03 a.m. The game will be played on Tide/Timber.

The annual Ludlow Cup will be held on Wednesday, September 13, for those members qualifying for teams. Play will be on Tide, Timber, and Trail. For MGA members who did not qualify for the Ludlow Cup competition, there will be a Team Net Combined competition beginning at 8:03 a.m. on Tide/Timber.

The game for Wednesday, September 20, will be two-man teams, aggregate Stableford beginning at 8:03 a.m. on Tide/Timber. This event will also serve as the September Medal Tournament event.

Final play for the month will occur on Wednesday, September 27. Originally scheduled to be a two-man Nassau, there is a good possibility that the game will be changed. Check the posting for that week. Whatever the game, tee times will begin at 8:03 a.m. and the game is scheduled for Tide/Timber.

Nifty Niners September Golf

Women's Golf Association

by Sharon Zablotney, Captain

The Women's Golf Association (WGA) has now completed its Captain's Cup and Club Championship matches and are preparing for the All Star Cup Tournament.

2006 Club Champion (Low Gross of the Field) is Lucinda Thompson and Debi Bozanich is runner up; Low Net of the Field goes to Sandie Yonke. In addition flight winners were:

Flight 1: Diane Kobz. Low Net

Flight 2: Turney Oswald, Low Gross, and Sally Grything, Low Net

Flight 3: Linda Aho, Low Gross, and Evy Lee, Low Net
Caryl Oros is the 2006 Captain's Cup winner, with Turney Oswald, runner up.

Our TOP (Teams of Olympic Peninsula) are well positioned for the final match. They are in First Place for Low Gross and Low Net. One more match to go! Good luck Port Ludlow!

On Monday, September 11, WGA members will compete in the 2006 All Star Cup. Each year the members earn points for all their wins and matches played. At the end of the season, the 20 members with the most points will form two teams: the Shooting Stars and the Northern Lights and play 27 holes to determine the bragging rights for next year. This is an exceptional day for all the women golfers who have worked on their games all year. Good luck to all the participants! Will it be the year of the Shooting Stars or the Northern Lights?

Still a great deal more golf to play this year—keep swing'n.
