Ten Years and Never Stronger

by Barbara Wagner-Jauregg

"It's the single most important source of information in Port Ludlow," said a resident describing the Port Ludlow Voice in a 2002 Port Townsend & Jefferson County article. Bob Thomas, who now makes his home in Florida with wife Lynn, founded the Voice in August of 1998. He single-handedly performed much of the work and publisher four years later.

From An Editor's Keyboard

by Jen Portz, Contributing Editor

The Voice is 20 years old this month! My, how the time has flown! Port Ludlow and the Voice have seen some marked changes over the past two decades, yet we both hold to some truths.

Back in 1998, there was a lot happening in Port Ludlow, only it wasn't easy for residents to find out what was up. That was until Ralph Thomas came up with the idea of a "newsletter" as he called it, The Port Ludlow Voice, to ferry information back and forth to and from those who live in the "Village in the Woods by the Bay."

In the pages of that first issue, the long-since-closed Harbormaster restaurant posted its monthly menu, there was an article that voiced concerns about a quarry trying an "end run" around the county, the Computer and Garden Clubs as well as the Arts Council and First Wednesday Luncheon group all weighed in, and there was a very funny piece aimed at encouraging people to volunteer...some things never change.

Ralph Thomas was a decent, caring man with a sense of humor and a sense of community. As the publisher of the Voice, he initially used his own money to keep the publication afloat. The first issue touted the fact that there would be no advertising, but after a few months classified ads and, a few years later, display ads were included to fund printing and mailing costs; the entire staff has always worked for free. Eventually, others navigated this ferry through calm or choppy waters, giving of their time and energy as we now do. Today, the Voice has rotating editors who take month-long turns at the helm and are supported, as always, by an amazing staff.

As I write my editorial this month, looking back over the past years, I am confident the Voice will continue into the future because the truth is, while we may come and go, you endure; you the reader, whose love of Port Ludlow, whose curiosity, whose commitment to stay informed, compels you each month to come aboard and give us a reason to gather information, get together with friends, and put together another issue of the Voice. You have been as essential to the well-being of this publication as any who work here. So, for the past 20 years of dedication, for always opening the cover and perusing the pages, we – the Voice Staff – thank you.

Saving SOS

by Dan Huntingford, Guest Writer

Dan Huntingford.

In 1998 I was just about to close down SOS Printing and go out and find a job. I had cut from 11 employees to four, closed our Port Hadlock location, closed our downtown Port Townsend location, consolidated into a cheap, humble little metal building in the port, sold my airplane, and fed all that money into the business. Then two things happened: Port Townsend Blueprint and Copy went bankrupt, and Ralph Thomas wandered in and asked for a quote on printing a newsletter for the Port Ludlow community. Between those two, business suddenly increased about 30 percent, which was enough to pull SOS out of the red and into profitability. Without the Voice, there would probably be no SOS Printing. I don't think there is another print shop in America that could say their number one biggest customer was a retired guy named Ralph.

I never thought it would last. I figured Ralph had some political agenda he wanted everyone to know about, but of course that was wrong. Ralph was completely altruistic and just wanted to build community, create a forum for residents, and bring everyone closer together. It's an endeavor I am very proud to be a part of. I will always be grateful for the opportunity to be the printer of the Port Ludlow Voice.

In 1994, with the guidance and support of Boeing, a Boeing retiree volunteer program was born. By the end of the year, it had grown to the point where a name was required. After many suggestions it was decided to name the group after the first Boeing Airplane, the Bluebill. In 1998, the Olympic Peninsula Bluebill Chapter was formed by a couple dozen Boeing retirees. By 2018, the chapter had grown to around 200 members in three counties: Jefferson, Kitsap and Clallam. Bluebills have accomplished a lot, but we didn't do it on our own. Agencies and community members were, and are, important partners.

On Monday, July 9, the Bluebills held their annual golf tournament at the Port Ludlow Golf Course and afterwards celebrated their 20th Anniversary at the Bay Club with Bluebills, community members, and partnering agencies. Bluebills always need help, and you do not need to be a Boeing retiree to join. ## Meet Mark Pearson

by Evelyn Bequette, Contributing Writer

Mark Pearson.

In a manner as mellow as his smooth tenor voice, Mark Pearson describes his decades as one of The Brothers Four with a gentle smile. "It's all about the love," he says, referring first to the love among the group's members. He's also referring to the shared love of music, singing, performing, and traveling together to gigs across the U.S. and around the world.

One of the first folk groups to perform in China, The Brothers Four has toured Japan more than 50 times, and upcoming trips also include Hong Kong and Thailand. Their concerts reflect the American Folk Songbook, and many in the audience sing along with top hits, such as Four Strong Winds, Where Have All the Flowers Gone, and This Land is Your Land.

Greenfields, The Brothers Four's second recording, catapulted them to star ranking. Number 2 on the pop charts in 1960, the song sold over a million copies. "They would all say they won the musical lottery," Mark says of the original members.

Their fourth recording, The Green Leaves of Summer, was featured in John Wayne's film, The Alamo, and led to appearances at President John F. Kennedy's inauguration and the 1961 Academy Awards show. A remarkably long run of popularity has produced over 40 albums, and now, nearly 60 years after the group's 1959 founding at a University of Washington fraternity, The Brothers Four are still performing to enthusiastic audiences around the world.

Of the ten men who have comprised the group over the years, Bob Flick is the only original member remaining. Other current members with Mark are his long-time friend, Mike McCoy, who joined in 2004, and Karl Olsen, added in 2008.

Mark joined the group in 1968 after one of the original members, Mike Kirkland, left. Long a music fan, Mark had spent hours during his youth listening to records and learning to play the banjo. In high school, he played in a Dixieland band and formed a folk group. But he never considered the possibility of a music career until he met with a measure of success on “The All-American College Show.”

When he mentioned he was considering a music career instead of following his father’s footsteps as an M.D., his father advised him to finish college first. Mark stayed in school, changed his major from Zoology to Communications — then dropped out soon after to accept the invitation to become one of The Brothers Four. (He never forgot his father’s advice, though; he’s now finishing his degree.)

Mark left the Brothers Four in 1971 to pursue his love of songwriting before rejoining the group in 1979, then full time six years later. Songwriting remains an important part of his life and career. One of his songs, I Will Be There was on the Brothers Four album, 1970, and another, Heart of the Heartland, co-written with his friend Leslie Eliel, has been part of the group’s repertoire for years. Mark has also performed since college days with Mike McCoy, and his songs can be found on their recordings as well as a number of solo albums.

In addition to performances with the group, Mark worked for ten years on a personal journey of introspection that produced One of Those Times in a Life, which culminated in a concert last year at Benaroya Hall; and, also his most recent solo album, Gratitude, Grit and Grace. At the end of the Benaroya performance, he says he finally felt “home on so many levels.” He has now begun his next adventure, sharing “Songs and Stories from Home,” believing wholeheartedly that “songs sung, stories told, and love shared can lead us home.”

Mark and Pat, his wife of 23 years, moved from Seattle to Port Ludlow in 2002 to a home on wooded, waterfront property next door to Mark’s long-time singing partner, John Paine, and his wife, Gail. “It’s a great experience to live so close to the Olympic Mountains with all the great people in this community,” he says. Reflecting on a life that’s taken “a kid from Spokane” to the heights of the music world and now the mellow surroundings of Port Ludlow, Mark says, “It continues to be about the love. The gratitude bowl is full with room for plenty more.”

Editor’s note: Mark is the featured singer/songwriter Saturday, September 1, at 7:30 p.m., as part of Coyle Community Center’s “Concerts in the Woods” series. For more information and directions, go to coyleconcerts.com/upcomingshows.html.

Ken’s Gardening Corner

by Ken Taylor, Contributing Writer

The next time you folks travel into Port Townsend and are driving down towards The Cup Restaurant, please take a moment to take in the spectacle called the Mary Robson Master Gardener Park. This triangle of emerging color, located on the corner of Sims Way and 10th Street, is a testament to the crew of volunteers helping to keep the space colorful and vibrant all year long, by planting, pruning, deadheading, weeding, checking the irrigation system, as well as mulching. Master Gardener Judith Johnson, in conjunction with the Jefferson County Master Gardener Foundation (JCMGF), designed, constructed, and planted over 100 varieties of deer-resistant shrubs, grasses, and ground-cover plants and flowers for yearlong enjoyment. Blooms of black-eyed Susan, daisies, lavender, heather, and dahlias will greet you as you meander along its gravel paths. You can find more information by going to their website jcmgf.org.

Moving on out to the garden, here are some chores to consider for the month. Help plants beat the heat in your garden by keeping soil consistently moist. A one-two punch of mulch and regular irrigation is the key to success. Water rhododendrons, azaleas, and camellias weekly as these shrubs are currently setting buds for next year’s flower show, and drought will diminish bud formation. After watering lawns and landscape plants, don’t water again until the top 1-2 inches of soil has dried out.

Visit your vegetable garden daily to ensure you’re picking produce at the ideal stage. Overripe fruits on tomato, squash, bean, and eggplant prevent smaller fruits from maturing, and can attract pests and diseases. For cantaloupes, netted skin indicates ripeness. Lift and twist fruit; if they’re ready, they’ll slip easily from the vine. For the best flavor, harvest carrots when they’re on the small side, quarter size or smaller. Pick beans when they’re as thick as a pencil. The fruits of many varieties change color as they mature. The longer peppers are on a plant, the hotter or sweeter they become. For potatoes, dig tubers when tops turn brown and fall over. Look beneath leaves carefully to find all ripening summer squash and zucchini. They both taste best when the fruit is smaller. For tomatoes, let them ripen on the vine for a sweeter flavor. And finally, when you are in the strawberry patch, choose the strongest, largest plants to bear next year's crop. Remove remaining plants, including runners. Fertilize and water regularly to yield an outstanding berry crop next year. That's it for this month. "Eat Healthy, and Happy Gardening."

Sugar Hill Farm

by Mary Ronen, Contributing Writer

Sugar Hill Farms' store on Beaver Valley Road is truly a delight. The Hills – Brenda, her husband Michael, and their six children (Isabel, Malaki, Titus, Whitney, Beautiful, and Olivia) – worked for over a year converting the old Beaver Valley Store into Brenda's dream come true. Titus built the jam shelf; Michael built the counter using local maple. The floor was simply repainted rather than retiled. The gas pumps stand idle and fenced in to keep any children safe from cars speeding through. It is a store that is a family business, family built, and family oriented.

Brenda grew up in this area, and still has family living nearby. Her grandmother was the pastry chef for Chevy Chase Golf Course some fifty years ago; now Brenda uses her recipe to make her own piecrusts. The Hill children are home schooled and attend Chimacum Schools; Isabel is a recent graduate of Chimacum High. The kids staff the store when they are not busy with their education or other activities.

The family began selling Brenda's confections at the Port Ludlow Farmers Market, and then went on to places like Point Defiance Zoo, Northwest Trek, Pike Place Market, and other Northwest venues; the peanut brittle for CB Nuts comes from their kitchen. All that time, Brenda had a dream of a store filled with homemade things like fudge, peanut brittle, jams, pies, her soft black licorice (gluten free!), and gift items such as local handicrafts and stuffed animals – things customers could pick and choose from for custom-made gift baskets using baskets available right there. She wanted her store to be a place that would bring peace and joy to people and a place where she could spend time with her family. Brenda said, "I want this store to be an experience, not just a store."

Opened for business in June, you can stop in Monday through Saturday, but they are closed on Sundays and from time to time for things like the boys' football games. You won't find tobacco, wine or beer, or be able to fill your gas tank, but you can fill an empty stomach with hamburgers, hot dogs, made-to-order sandwiches, salads, pie, soft drinks, and specialty coffees all prepared on the spot. And, of course, a large variety of goodies, including the super-delicious homemade fudge!

Trivia With the Library

Summertime means reading at the Jefferson County Library; and to test your reading (and listening) retention, library staff have partnered with local businesses to host three separate trivia events in August.

Ages 12 and up are welcome on Thursday, August 2, at 6:00 p.m. to test their knowledge of rock, pop, and country music from the 1960s - 2010s at "Name That Tune: Battle of the Decades." Library staff have revived the library's own version of the high energy, interactive, 1950s TV game show. Participants will listen to clips from different musical genres and try to guess which song they hear. This event will be held at the library, located at 620 Cedar Avenue in Port Hadlock.

All ages are welcome at "Books on Tap Trivia" on Friday, August 17, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at Finnrivier Cider Garden, located at 124 Center Road, Chimacum. Bring the family, form a team, or come solo. The library will put you on a team to get quizzed about books, film, and pop culture. Enjoy fresh air, food, and cider. Prizes will be awarded.

The "Books on Tap Trivia" questions will be derived from the following books and films: Invention of Hugo Cabret by Brian Selznick; Persepolis by Marjane Satrapi; Good Omens by Terry Pratchett and Neil Gaiman; The Wright 3 by Blue Balliett; Something Wicked this Way Comes by Ray

Bradbury; Sabriel by Garth Nix; The Adventures of Beekle by Dan Santat; Catch 22 by Joseph Heller; One Straw Revolution by Masanobu Fukuoka; Silent Spring by Rachel Carson; Gladiator (2000); ET (1982); The Incredibles (2004); Help! (1965); Strangers on a Train (1951); An Affair to Remember (1957); Clue (1985); Magnificent Seven (1960); Run Lola Run (1998); Get Out (2017).

For adults 21 and over, at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, August 21, the library is partnering with Jefferson County's newest taproom, The Keg and I, at 1291 Chimacum Road for a monthly "Third Tuesdays Trivia Contest." This pub trivia game will test your knowledge about science, local history, pop culture, geography, and other topics. Library Information professionals will present questions and award extra points to teams who present a library card.

Port Ludlow: Company Town Ahead of Its Time

by Tim Rensema, Contributing Writer

Early Port Ludlow Schoolhouse.

Submitted photo

Most folk have read about the typical coal-company towns of the eastern United States, where you "owe your soul to the company store." Port Ludlow, Port Gamble, and other towns of this area were also company towns owned, in this case, by Pope and Talbot with Puget Mill Sawmill as the principal employer of the region. That is the extent of the similarity to the coal-company towns of the east.

Pope and Talbot, realizing the value of their employees and their families, constructed a hospital and school to provide for the individual worker and the family. Given that logging and sawmill operations were (and still are) two of the most dangerous occupations, the need for medical support was important. The 1910 census for Port Ludlow identified Mrs. Catherine Carpenter as a nurse working in the hospital. In 1930, Dr. John Elden and nurse Wilma Johnson provided immediate care to those who were injured in the woods or the mill as well as to their families. The shingle mill, producing cedar shingles, had an especially high injury rate, with two saws concurrently operating. When you saw someone missing fingers in a mill town, it was normally due to working in a shingle mill.

In 1860, the need for schools was not important given that most of the employees were single men. However, as the mill became more established and grew in size, children were born and needed to be educated. Pope and Talbot constructed a school near the present day Grace Community Church. This was a three-room schoolhouse that operated at least from 1870 (with 21-year-old Mary Ann McMillan as teacher) to 1930, supporting grades one through eight. Signe Swanson, a young girl whose family emigrated from Sweden in the early 1900s, taught school in Port Ludlow. When she married Arthur Swanson a year later, it ended her career; Washington law forbade married women from being teachers. With three classrooms for eight grades, it must have been confusing for the children, but perhaps many of the readers of the Voice can remember those days of multi-age groups in a one-room schoolhouse. With all its amenities, Port Ludlow was a new type of company town—compassionate.

Off We Go!

by Amberson (Mac) McCulloch, Guest Writer

Creaking towards my 75th year, I started casting about for something special to do in celebration of that milestone birthday. I had gotten in the habit of screwing up my courage and doing a challenging and memorable activity on significant birthdays; at age 60 I had rappelled off a cliff, at 65 I had done a series of bungee jumps, and at age 70 a tandem-skydive. I considered a solo skydive for my 75th, but was chicken. So, what to do?

Considering the possibilities, I remembered that my stepfather had piloted a P-51 Mustang fighter as a combat ace during WWII and had frequently rhapsodized about the joys of low-altitude, high-speed flying. Searching online, I found that the Collings Foundation "Wings of Freedom" tour was going to be at the Bremerton airport in June and was offering P-51 flights. However, the $2,200 cost for a 30-minute ride rocked me; plus I knew that if I swallowed hard and paid the price, when my bride of 49 years saw the charge on our Visa bill, our Golden Wedding anniversary might never happen.

Then I read that B-17 flights were also being offered for far less than the P-51 experience. The iconic B-17 "Flying Fortress" long-range WWII Boeing bomber played a huge role in the Allied victory, plus was the real star of one of my favorite movies, the 1949 classic Twelve O'Clock High. So I signed up.

On the appointed day in Bremerton, I spent an hour touring a B17, B24, B25 and TF-51D, all of which were available for rides. Then, after a brief orientation, I boarded the B-17 along with ten others. "Boarding" isn't really the right word for getting on a B17. Reaching up, you have to grab the edge of an open hatch, swing your heels above your head to catch them on the hatch edge, then pull yourself in. With a superhuman effort, I was able to do it, but several of the more portly members of our merry group needed significant help.

The B-17 wasn't built for comfort. My seat was a cushion on the floor with a lap belt. The fuselage was narrow, cramped, cluttered, and bristled with multiple 50-caliber machine guns. Seated in the navigator's area, I buckled up. The pilot fired up the four 750 horsepower Hornet Radial Engines, and off we lumbered down the runway. The noise was terrific, which along with a large open port on the ceiling, made the takeoff quite exciting. Once airborne, but still climbing, we were allowed to unbuckle and move about, which wasn't that easy. To reach the cockpit, I had to inch along a very narrow catwalk, maneuvering carefully around the ball turret, taking special care not to step off onto the bomb bay doors, which, if stepped upon, would open and deliver me as a special payload to the earth below. I laboriously worked my way back to the tail gunner's station, then back to the navigator's area, where I stood up with my head and shoulders outside the ceiling port and took in the green expanse and lakes of beautiful Western Washington.

That experience alone was worth the price of admission.

After a half hour of low altitude flying, we landed smoothly back at Bremerton, excited and exhilarated by the experience. The flight, the warm crystal-clear weather, the gorgeous in-flight vistas, all made for a very memorable birthday celebration.

Now, what to do for my 80th?

New and Improved... Chimacum Backpacks for Kids!

The Backpacks for Kids Weekend Nutrition program reorganized in April to become Port Ludlow's own 501(c)(3) Chimacum Backpacks for Kids. An all-volunteer organization, we completed our eighth year of providing 80 plus bags of kid-friendly, shelf-stable meals each week to food-insecure children. Last year's pilot of Summer Bags is back with 350 for pick up at the library and Irondale Church. Our mission continues: "To Feed and Support At-Risk Children in our Community."

With our reorganization comes our partnership with the Tri-Area Food Bank, opening up another food source at Northwest Harvest and providing storage and packing space. We are grateful for Port Ludlow community partnerships with many individual supporters as well as groups like Olympic Terrace, the Yacht Club, our most faithful Happy Hour in the Hood, The Bluebills, and the Port Ludlow Cribbage Club.

We can be reached by post at PO Box 595, Chimacum, WA 98325 or by email at chimacumbackpacksforkids@gmail.com. Under development is our new webpage, and also in the works is our fundraiser, the fourth annual, better-than-ever Brewfest by the Bay on Saturday, October 6, from noon to 4:00 p.m. at the Bay Club.

Library Awarded Space Science Institute Grant

After entering into an extremely competitive grant application process that began in November 2017, the Jefferson County Library has been selected as one of only eight locations to host the inaugural national tour of the interactive traveling exhibition "Discover Exoplanets: The Search for Alien Earths." The National Center for Interactive Learning at the Space Science Institute received seventy-five grant applications to host this exhibit, which will be at the library in August - October 2019.

The Washington State University (WSU) Jefferson County Extension Office collaborated with the library as a community partner in the grant writing process. As a focus for this proposal, the library emphasized that building youth resilience often comes from new experiences and opportunities. The Discover Exoplanets exhibition will provide library patrons with an introduction to the tools NASA scientists use for discovering exoplanets and the search for life on other planets.

Each grant recipient chosen by the Institute represents a unique region in the country, has a unique exhibition venue, and demonstrates how this exhibit will be a valuable experience for the community. Of the eight grant recipients, Jefferson County Library's location has the smallest population.

Selected partner sites populations include: Queens, NY (2.4 million), San Diego, CA (1.3 million), Springfield, MO (160,660), Pocatello, ID (54,810), Sierra Vista, AZ (43,888), Cottage Grove, OR (9,734), LaGrange, KY (8,082), and Port Hadlock, WA (3,476).

Jefferson County Library staff member Chris Hoffman Hill and WSU Extension Office staff member Su Tipton will be attending a two-day Discover Exoplanets exhibition orientation and planning workshop in August 2018 in Pueblo, CO. At this workshop, they will learn about the exhibit's hands-on science activities, programming, outreach, and professional development resources in preparation for sharing the exhibit with the public. Additionally, NASA will provide them with astromaterials such as rocks and meteorites from the Johnson Space Center.

For more information about the Discover Exoplanets exhibition, go to starnetlibraries.org/portfolio-items/discover-exoplanets/.

Free Estate Life Care Planning Seminar

Richard Tizzano is an expert in elder law, estate planning, Medicaid planning, adult guardianships, personal healthcare crisis management, strategic health cost risk mitigation, and sustainability of care. His seminar is on Wednesday, August 22, from 10:00 a.m. to noon, at the Bay Club.

With 10,000 Baby Boomers turning 65 every day, and more and more couples coming to his office in "crisis mode," Richard felt he had to develop a means to reach seniors and their families, to help educate them on what their options are as they approach the next chapter of their lives.

His Life Care planning seminars are designed to explore solutions to help you age in place, protect assets, and remain independent, providing peace of mind for you and your loved ones. He will provide a roadmap on aging and long-term care.

Whether it's your journey or you are along for the ride as an advocate for someone you love, the fear of traveling this unfamiliar path can be crippling, and Richard's seminars are designed to help you take the first step onto this new road. The good news is that the pathways are predictable—and because they are predictable, they can be anticipated, and you can be adequately prepared.

Having the opportunity to be informed, organized, and equipped will not only give you peace of mind, but give you hope and a healthy perspective for the journey. You will find Richard's seminar insightful, humorous, and informative.

Frenzl's Mortuary Memoirs Book Released

Congratulations go to Port Ludlow resident Steve Frenzl for his recently published book, Coffee & Donuts with the Dearly Departed, a fictionalized memoir of his years working as a night-man apprentice in a Boulder, Colorado funeral parlor while attending college in the 1960s. Of his book Frenzl notes, "I found that most people, although they usually express fear first, find the subject fascinating. Many want to know what really happens behind closed doors in a mortuary." This memoir does that, but in a highly telling and humorous way because, as his then-boss would say, "The first three letters in 'funeral' are F-U-N." Coffee & Donuts with the Dearly Departed and More Coffee & Donuts are available in two volumes as Kindle e-books from Amazon.com.

The Sheriff's Chat

by Sergeant Mark Apeland, Jefferson County Sheriff's Office

I, along with other Jefferson County Sheriff's Office (JCSO) deputies, recently attended the ALICE training that was held at the Port Townsend High School. Those in attendance included law enforcement officers, school-teachers, school administrators, and hospital personnel.

ALICE, which stands for Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, and Evacuate, is a post-Columbine, Virginia Tech, and Sandy Hook strategy that goes beyond the conventional lockdown. ALICE training instructor-led classes provide preparation and a plan for individuals, schools, and organizations on how to more proactively handle the threat of an aggressive intruder, or active-shooter event. It is the leading training solution that increases an organization's and individual's odds of survival during a violent-intruder event.

Those who attended the training are now certified ALICE trainers and can teach these principles to others. The JCSO will train organizations and schools that request the training.

Jefferson Healthcare Grief Support Sessions Expanded

For anyone who has experienced the death of a loved one and needs grief support, the Jefferson Healthcare Hospice has expanded its Ongoing Grief Support sessions to every Wednesday. The expansion of the program was made possible through sponsorship from the Safeway Foundation and the Albertsons Companies Foundation.

Each facilitated 90-minute session provides support in a safe, nurturing, and confidential environment. Topics include common grief reactions, coping with stress, grief related changes, and others. Participants receive support and are invited to share feelings and experiences in a confidential peer-group setting. No registration is required for these facilitated sessions.

Carolyn Cristina Manzoni, MA, Bereavement Coordinator for Jefferson Healthcare says, "Our ongoing support groups offer a safe place to bring your grief, feel supported, and learn about your grief. Being in a circle with others who are also grieving helps to reduce isolation and the illusion that we have to carry our grief burden alone. Sharing our grief experience with others plays a powerful and healing role in our grief journey."

All sessions meet in the Jefferson Healthcare Home Health and Hospice third floor conference room at 2500 West Sims Way in Port Townsend (Sims Way and Howard Street off the roundabout). The program is offered to the community free of charge with support from the Hospice Foundation for Jefferson Healthcare, the Safeway Foundation, and Albertsons Companies Foundation.

Session days and times are the first and third Wednesdays, 6:00 - 7:30 p.m., second and fourth Wednesdays, 3:00 - 4:30 p.m., and fifth Wednesdays in August and October, 3:00 - 4:30 p.m.

Earlier Opening of Dental Clinic in Port Townsend

Jefferson Healthcare has received a $250,000 grant from Arcora Foundation, the Foundation of Delta Dental of Washington, to help develop a dental clinic that will be the first provider in Jefferson County to regularly take adult patients covered by Medicaid (also referred to as Apple Health). Jefferson Healthcare will be the first Rural Health Clinic in the state to provide Medicaid enrolled clients with dental services.

"We appreciate this significant grant from Arcora Foundation," said Mike Glenn, Jefferson Healthcare CEO. "For too long, low-income patients in Jefferson County have struggled to find a dentist. This funding will enable us to provide essential dental care for our community and reduce the number of people seeking costly emergency room care for painful dental problems."

When completed and at full operation, the six-chair dental clinic will be able to provide approximately 7,250 patient visits to 3,000 children and adults a year. Jefferson Healthcare is recruiting a dental director, dentist, and other professionals to staff the new clinic.

Coming on top of a $1 million appropriation from the Washington State Legislature, the grant from Arcora Foundation should enable construction to start this fall, with an anticipated opening the first quarter of 2019.

The new dental clinic will be developed across the street from the hospital, on the second floor of Jefferson Healthcare's existing primary care medical clinic in the Sheridan Medical Office Building, 834 Sheridan Street, Port Townsend.

Having medical, dental and behavioral health care in close proximity will enable integration of services and allow Jefferson County residents to receive whole person care from one medical system.

The dental clinic will focus on prevention, education, and emergency care, and include basic restorative and rehabilitative services. The clinic will collaborate with local and regional dentists to ensure full access to oral health services through referrals for more complex services such as root canals and dentures.

The Sky Up There: The Great July Star Party

by Mark Rader, Guest Writer

As we move into August it's worth reminding the reader about the upcoming Star Party scheduled at the Inn here in Port Ludlow. Set for the evening of Sunday, August 19, this event promises to be especially memorable. First, attendees will be treated to exceptional views of both Saturn and Jupiter, and, time permitting, the planet Mars. In addition, we shall enjoy our Moon in first quarter, which offers one of the best and most dramatic views of our nearest companion. Because of the angle at which sunlight strikes the Moon's surface, all along the line between light and darkness the craters and mountains are visually spectacular, a sight not to be missed.

All who join us will also have an opportunity to view deep sky objects such as the Ring Nebula in the constellation of Lyra; the great and unforgettable Globular Star Cluster in the constellation of Hercules; and also, the Andromeda Spiral Galaxy some 2.5 million light-years distant. Weather permitting, we'll also take a look at a double-star system or two and maybe even another galaxy.

Best of all, the principal speaker will be Dr. Kathryn Volk, a renowned planetary astronomer from the University of Arizona's Lunar and Planetary Laboratory — arguably the best such research center in its field in the world. Dr. Volk is best known as an expert in the newly emerging field of extra-solar planets, that is, planets that orbit stars other than our Sun. The number of such planets so identified just orbiting around nearby stars in our own galaxy will truly astound you. Dr. Volk is a riveting speaker with an extraordinary talent for taking a very complex subject and making it sound remarkably simple.

In addition, we may have a couple of other surprises for all those who join us for dinner at The Inn's superb Fireside Restaurant wine-pairing dinner that precedes the star party. For further information and reservations, just call The Inn. In any event, even if you can't make the dinner, plan to join us for an evening of exciting visual astronomy beginning at about 9:00 p.m. — an experience you won't forget.

August 16 – Thursday, 7:00 p.m. We are honored to have authors Kevin Clark and Stan Sanvel Rubin.

Kevin Clark teaches the Rainier Writing Workshop. His Self-Portrait with Expletives won the Pleiades Press contest. His first book of poems, In the Evening of No Warning, earned a grant from the Academy of American Poets. And, his most recent chapbook, The Wanting, won the Five Oaks Press contest.

His website is kevinclarkpoetry.com.

Stan Sanvel Rubin has served as director of the State University of New York (SUNY) Brockport Writers Forum & Video Library and is co-founding director of the Rainier Writing Workshop low-residency Master of Fine Arts. His fourth full-length collection There Here was published by Lost Horse Press in 2013. His third Hidden Sequel won the Barrow Street Press Poetry Book Prize. He also writes essay reviews of poetry for Water-Stone Review.

August 23 – Thursday, 7:00 p.m. We invite everyone to join us for an Ekphrastic* evening. Writers have been invited to visit the gallery at Northwind Arts Center to view Expressions Northwest, the annual Art Port Townsend exhibit on display during August. After viewing the artwork, they will write their reaction to a specific piece and read their responses to the audience.

This evening is part of the month-long calendar of Art Port Townsend Arts Festival activities. The public is invited to attend this open-mic reading as listeners.

The Reading Series is a program of monthly (or more frequent) free readings by local and guest authors, featuring both poets and prose writers. Unless otherwise stated, the readings begin at 7:00 p.m. in Northwind Arts Center, 701 Water Street in Port Townsend. Donations of $5 are gladly accepted to support Northwind Arts Center, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

For more information, contact Bill Mawhinney at 360-302-1159. Everyone is welcome.

*Ekphrastic in this context means “the literary representation of or response to visual art.” A well-known example is W. H. Auden’s “Musée des Beaux Arts.”

Port Ludlow Art League Artists of the Month

Artist of the Month – Fran Bodman

At an early age, Fran's parents gave her a paint-by-numbers kit, and soon her artwork appeared throughout the house. In high school, Fran majored in art and later attended the American Academy of Art, a commercial art school in downtown Chicago.

Fran's first commercial artist position was with R.H. Donnelly, the country's third largest print and online Yellow Pages publisher. Fran was responsible for putting together ads, including drawing and lettering by hand. After starting a family, and as time permitted, Fran worked as a freelance artist, subsequently pursuing a career in sales and real estate. When she retired, Fran renewed her passion for art and began taking classes in various media, including stained glass, acrylics, and watercolor.

Fran's latest passion is watercolors, which will be featured at the Port Ludlow Sound Community Bank during August. Her work has also been on display at the Port Ludlow Art League Gallery, and The Inn At Port Ludlow.

Necklace by Linda Henderson.

Jeweler of the Month – Linda Henderson

Linda has always had a keen eye for color and style. Her beautiful jewelry expresses those elements. Linda enjoys searching for unique beads, crystals, and gemstones at various gem shows and galleries, and incorporates them into her wonderful designs. Linda's exploration has inspired her to create jewelry that is pleasing to others, as well as to herself.

Linda's current designs will be on display at the Port Ludlow Art Gallery in August.

Port Ludlow Bay Club Exhibit – Li Ding-Salopek

The Port Ludlow Bay Club will display a series of realistic acrylic paintings, graphic business art, and multimedia art pieces by Port Ludlow artist Li Ding-Salopek. Photographs of Li's dramatic jewelry designs will also be shown.

Li grew up in Tangshan, a city in the northeastern Hebei province of China. She attended the Center Academy of Craft & Design in Beijing and went on to teach art and design at China's Guangzhou Academy of Fine Arts. After immigrating to the United States in 2008, Li settled in Port Ludlow, and soon immersed herself in the local art community.

Li's inspiration for her artwork comes from nature, as well as world events, including people and places, and always embraces her many life experiences. "My inspiration comes from what captures my heart," Li stated.

Her artwork will be shown at the Port Ludlow Bay Club during August. The Bay Club is located at 120 Spinnaker Place.

You can meet these talented artists at the Art League's Second Wednesday Reception on August 8 in the lobby of the Port Ludlow Sound Community Bank from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m., and next door at the Gallery from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. The Bank and Gallery are located at the corner of Oak Bay Road and Osprey Ridge Drive. ## Art Port Townsend 20th Anniversary

This year, the 20th anniversary of Art Port Townsend, we dedicate to its founder Jeanette Best. It was through Jeanette's efforts, and so many others who worked with her over the years, that sparked a number of great enterprises in Port Townsend, including the creation of Northwind Arts Center, and Art Port Townsend.

Black Swan.

Deconstructing Curtis at the Suquamish Museum

by Bev Rothenborg, Arts and Entertainment Editor

The Suquamish Museum is an absolute jewel! Located on the Suquamish Reservation near the Clearwater Casino, this small treasure is filled with wonderful artifacts and information about the history of the Native people of the area.

Currently, the featured exhibit displays Edward Curtis's famous photographs of Native Americans from the early 1900s. These posed images are juxtaposed with historical photos from the same era mostly from the Suquamish Tribal Archives; hence, the title Deconstructing Curtis. Although Curtis's pictures are primarily focused on lifestyles before treaties were signed, which forced Native people onto reservations and changed their lives forever, his photos were taken more than 50 years after this happened in the Puget Sound area. They were also taken more than 120 years after treaties were signed with the Ojibwe, Mohawks, Cherokee, and Choctaw. To show Native Americans before contact for example, he used a cedar shawl thrown over cotton clothing to depict a time long past. To me both Curtis's photos and those from the Tribal Archives were equally fascinating.

This exhibit lasts through January 11, 2019. The Museum is located at 6861 N.E. South Street, Suquamish and is open daily from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. There is a concurrent exhibit of the same title at the Seattle Art Museum (SAM). The SAM exhibit is a collaborative project between SAM staff, Native advisors, contemporary Native artists, and collecting institutions.

If you visit the Suquamish Museum during Chief Seattle Days on Saturday and Sunday, August 18 and 19, you may pick up free passes to the museum at the information booth on the festival grounds; they may be redeemed during your visit. This is a wonderful festival with canoe racers, Native food and crafts, and Native people dressed in their regalia. Just don't call them "costumes," as I did last year when I was informed of the proper reference. You are welcomed to join the Native dancing, too.

Close by is Chief Seattle's gravesite which is well worth a visit. To understand the story posts, pick up a flyer at the Museum, which describes the meaning of the carved images. Attached to the flyer is a copy of Chief Seattle's speech of 1854 when Washington was still a territory. You won't be able to read it without tears in your eyes!

Village Council

Village Council July Meeting Summary

The following is a recap of the Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) meeting minutes. The full minutes are available for review on plvc.org.

Initially, a full agenda was approved for the meeting; however, the first agenda item was the Tala Point tree harvest, with a presentation by Adrian Miller from Olympic Resource Management (ORM). The discussion initiated by Mr. Miller, which involved considerable audience participation, ultimately required the entire two hours allocated for the usual board meeting. A summary of the meeting follows.

Mr. Miller began his presentation by reviewing a map of the proposed area boundaries to be affected by the Tala Point tree harvest, noting that it would be visible from certain parts of Port Ludlow and Tala Shores.

There was considerable concern from audience members regarding the issues of sedimentation, infiltration, transportation, noise, and herbicides. Mr. Miller addressed each of these issues thoroughly, although not to everyone's satisfaction.

He reported that the permit, which has been submitted to the Department of Natural Resources (DNR) for the harvest, is being reviewed by the state of Washington. He explained that there are nine agencies involved, including: landowners, timber companies, small forest land owners, representatives for east side tribes, west side tribes, Jefferson County, environmental agencies, ecology groups, and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service involved. These nine agencies make the rules regarding timber harvest practices. The DNR is then responsible for enforcing these rules and regulations throughout the entire harvest process.

Subject to permit approval, the timber harvest will most likely begin at the end of August and continue through the end of the year. Adrian Miller will be glad to address any questions and can be reached at Adrianmiller@ORMinc.com. In addition, further information can be found at the DNR website dnr.wa.gov.

Reminder to Dog Owners

What does a Village Council Director Do, Anyway?

Hello, Port Ludlow MPR Neighbors. Now that your handicap is down to a respectable level, your backhand almost always lands in the corner you desired, and your setting of the jib results in maximum hull speed and enjoyment on the Sound, how about helping out on how things work here in the Master Planned Resort (MPR) by running for the Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) Board of Directors?

Those trails do not just maintain themselves, the Newcomer Welcome Event last month did not just appear, the Emergency Management preparations are not done by FEMA, and relationships with the county and surrounding property owners do not take place by accident.

There are seven elected directors on the PLVC Board of Directors, each serving a two-year term. In addition, the Presidents of the Ludlow Maintenance Commission (LMC) and South Bay Community Association (SBCA), or their designees, serve as directors.

The Board meets at 3:00 p.m. twice a month with each meeting lasting approximately two hours. On the first Thursday of the month, the location of the Board's formal meeting alternates between the Beach Club and Bay Club. A less formal workshop is held on the third Tuesday of each month. The purpose of the workshop is to discuss the pros and cons of subjects that will be voted upon at the next board meeting. No votes or decisions are made at the workshop.

In addition, each elected director represents the Board on three or so of the approximately 14 PLVC committees. The role there is to be a voting member of that committee and also to be a two-way communication link between the committee and the Board. The time commitment for committees varies greatly, but probably consumes about two hours per committee, per month.

Lastly, some directors become officers of the PLVC. The usual offices of president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer are selected by the board for each year. If needed, additional offices may be created by the Board.

If you would like more information or are interested in running for the PLVC Board, please contact Bill Dean through the PLVC Website, plvc.org/contact.

Let's Plan to Stay Alive and Thrive by Prepping Our Utilities

by Danille Turissini, Director, PLVC Emergency Management and Mark Bauserman, NPREP, Jefferson County's Neighborhood Preparedness Action Group

On Saturday, September 15, the Port Ludlow Fire and Rescue (PLFR) will welcome the Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) Emergency Management, Jefferson County Department of Emergency Management, (JCDEM) Emergency Operations (EOC), and Jefferson County Neighborhood Prep (NPREP) for a joint seminar to educate the community in how to safely and effectively manage electrical, gas, water and sanitation utilities, from pre-disaster preparation to post-disaster recovery.

When preparing for a major disaster, it's always a good idea to think about our everyday life and how we depend on these utilities for daily living. For example, think about how inconvenient things are when the power goes out for a couple of days. Even the simplest of tasks becomes a major effort. Now, think about what would happen in a major disaster when these assets are suddenly taken away, indefinitely. We will not only need to survive the disaster, but also to quickly reorganize our lives to thrive in very challenging conditions, in order to reduce our stress and aid those less fortunate.

This is why the PLVC-EM, PLFR, JCDEM-EOC, and NPREP are coming together for this very important event: to provide our residents with the benefit of knowing how to prepare for a disaster on every level. Individual residents knowing how to manage utilities, before and after a disaster, will be key to our entire community's level of resiliency.

Here's a preview of what you will learn at the symposium:

- How to make your utilities more resistant to disasters, thereby protecting and preserving what will become some of our most valuable survival assets.
- Ways to reduce the risk of fire and injury from utility damage.

- Steps to make your utilities easier to adapt for emergency use.
- What utility restoration may look like in terms of time, and governmental emergency response from air, land and sea.
- Air lifting in liquefied petroleum (LP) gas bottles, etc.
- Ideas on how to restore as much functionally as possible for daily routine: communication, lighting, cooking, bathing, washing, sanitation and heating. Examples of what daily cooking, or just taking a warm shower, might look like.
- Ideas on organizational models for neighborhoods to improve post-disaster life.

The seminar is being offered free of charge. However, due to the limited seating capacity of the Port Ludlow Fire House meeting room, registration is required and will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Register today at bit.ly/PLUtilitiesPrepReg.

Update From the Manager

by Brian Belmont, General Manager

Beach Club 1967.

Submitted photo

On Saturday, June 30, Ludlow Maintenance Commission (LMC) and the Beach Club celebrated its 50th anniversary. We estimated that we had at least 250 people stop by during our Open House celebration. Once again, Office Manager Kim Bond did an outstanding job planning the party with lots of help from LMC's maintenance supervisor, Don Baker, who fabricated some of the decorations and displays. The majority of our staff worked during the event helping with food service, bar tending, and cleanup duties. It was a lot of work, but it was a lot of fun seeing so many of our Port Ludlow residents enjoying themselves. Members had fun looking at the old pictures and newsletter articles that were displayed around the rooms and visiting with friends and neighbors in attendance.

Personally, I enjoyed talking to Cheryl Wheeler about the "old days" of Port Ludlow. I learned that Cheryl and her family have been in Port Ludlow for more than 50 years, so she has witnessed the growth in our community from the very beginning of Pope and Talbot's new development.

All LMC members are welcome. ✳

Many of our newer members were shocked when they saw pictures of the original Beach Club, taken in 1967 and 1968. When originally built, the building entrance was configured differently, the Bay View room had a large fireplace, the Gazebo didn't have walls or a ceiling, the exercise and Gallery rooms weren't built, and we didn't have upstairs bathrooms or offices. It wasn't until 1983 that the indoor pool was built.

With the 50th celebration behind us, we planned for our next event, the Community Barbecue which LMC sponsors. This year's barbecue was held on Saturday, July 28 on the Beach Club lawn from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. We grilled hamburgers and hot dogs, LMC members brought side dishes, and our South Bay Community Association friends brought desserts to share with about 10 people. LMC provided burgers and hot dogs, paper plates and utensils, and refreshments for our guests of all ages.

As always, if you have questions or comments about this article, or the on-going work at the Beach Club, I can be reached at 360-437-9201, or by email at beachclub@olympus.net.

All SBCA members are welcome.

SBCA Meeting Highlights

President Gil Skinner called the meeting of the South Bay Community Association (SBCA) to order at 9:30 a.m. on Friday, July 13. All directors were present. Manager Mark Torres was also in attendance. A quorum was determined, and the minutes of the June 8 board meeting were approved. The agenda was approved.

President's Remarks: Skinner announced that the July 13 social was cancelled and reminded members of the pancake breakfast on Friday, August 3, at 9:00 a.m.

Manager's Report: Torres commended Christine Spagle for her work decorating the Great Room. The carpet is in, the painting is finished, and 80 percent of the furniture is here. Most of the old furniture has been sold. Several "on call" service jobs to help with the summer activities and training for future jobs are being offered. Packets have been mailed for the annual meeting, and members are requested to return their proxy forms. Roof cleaning will begin in August.

Treasurer's Report: Dan Quail reported as of June 30, the SBCA had total current assets of $490,974.88 and other assets of $4,896. Total assets were $495,870.88. $6,715.50 of Member Assessments was transferred to Reserves. Operating Expenses for June were $59,768.04, and Reserve Expenses for the month were $11,444.72.

Operating account balances were:

Total Reserves: $132,192.97

Board Communications: None

Committee Reports:

Architectural Review Committee (ARC): Vicki Derrenberger, chair, reported that three applications were received, and the one time-consuming complaint situation ended with agreement and a handshake.

Activities and Amenities Committee: Sheila Twohey announced the Summer Games with a picnic and Music on the Green will be held on Sunday, September 2. North Bay members will be invited to be included in the games, and with a ticket, they may participate in the music and food.

Facilities Committee: Chris Spagle reported that new storage space was found for Food Bank and Dove House donations. Art work for the hallway walls has been looked at and more accessories need to be acquired.

Finance Committee: Dan Quail reported that annual income led expenses; the committee discussed what to do with the extra money carried over and decided half would be added to the Capital Improvement Fund with the balance going into our business checking account. The Reserve Account is thin, just at the required $100,000; however, we do have $28,251.65 in our Money Market account. The origin of the Benevolent Fund was donated money. A member questioned the Capital Improvement Fund. Several directors explained that the fund is used to pay for items or services not covered by reserve or operating funds. They will be defining the criteria for these funds and will design an approval process. The member went on to express her disagreement with the dues being raised when there is extra money. Other members and directors discussed the rationale for the dues increase and the likelihood that it will be a regular thing. Following this issue were several requests to see the original and final audits, which will be available to read at the Bay Club. The final audit will be posted after the annual meeting.

This was Dan's last meeting, and he was thanked for his many years of service by the board and attending members. Happy retirement, Dan!

HR: No report

Communications Committee: Phyllis Waldenberg is joining the committee. A motion was made and passed to approve her appointment. The committee is saying goodbye to Director Sheila Towhey.

The new website will have a soft launch the weekend of July 15-16. There will be no password. Each village will have the technical information to manage their own sites. A meeting with the village representatives to go over this information will be held.

A motion was made and passed to approve all committee reports.

Old Business: None*New Business: None

Port Ludlow Village Council: Please check the PLVC page in this issue of the Voice.

Member Comments: Aven Anderson proposed a Bay Club sign on Paradise Bay Road at the entrance pointing toward the Club. He also requested a dimmer switch for the meeting room be considered by the board. Evidently, both items are already under consideration.

Diane Ridgley asked about the idea of having members buy their own drinks. A discussion followed without any resolution.

Next month's board meeting will be on Friday, August 10. All members are encouraged to attend.

Scribe Needed

The Voice is looking for a volunteer to take notes for our South Bay Editor at the SBCA Board Meetings. The time commitment is minimal, only 2 hours from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. on the second Friday of each month. If you are interested or for more information, email sbeditor@plvoice.org.

Members Social and More

All South Bay Members are invited to join us on Friday, August 3, from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m. for our Morning Social. Come for pancakes, sausage, bacon, fruit, juice, coffee, and good company. There is no charge, but please sign up in advance at the Bay Club front desk.

Friday, August 10, will be our monthly Members' Social from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m.; enjoy the summer weather with friends and neighbors. Bring an appetizer or dessert to share.

Looking down the road, mark your calendars for Sunday, September 2, when we will host our second annual End of Summer Games. Activities will include a morning walk as well as other outdoor activities and events. After the games, we will have an early evening outdoor barbecue followed by our second Music on the Green concert, featuring an encore performance by the group Up Next. Check the Bay Club website for details. Tickets will go on sale several weeks before the event.

On Tuesday, September 18, our Community Movie will be The Greatest Showman with Hugh Jackman. Also, in September will be our first planning meeting for the Holiday Gala to be held on Saturday, December 8. Save the date!

Dove House Golf Benefit

The 7th Annual Dove House Golf Benefit will be held on Friday, August 17, at the Port Ludlow Golf Club (PLGC). This event is sponsored by the Olympic Peninsula Boeing Bluebills. The fee is $100 for the general community and $55 for PLGC members. There will be a shotgun-start at noon and fees include a golf cart, box lunch, winner prizes, raffle prizes, and an awards ceremony with hors d'oeuvres. 100 percent of the donations are sent directly to Dove House to help alleviate the dangerous situations for victims of sexual assault and domestic violence. Items not in Dove House's budget include such things as personal care products, emergency housing, transportation, school supplies, and are just a few things that ease the lives of traumatized families. We are requesting raffle baskets from the community. If you are interested, contact Barbara Burke at 206-890-5387 or Barbara Berthiaume at 360-437-0423. Sing-up at the pro shop by August 10 for a fun day out to help a very worthy cause!

Port Ludlow Women's Golf Association

by Kathy Traci, PLWGA Publicity Chairperson

The Captain's Cup team match play tournament, played in June and July, is winding to an end with only one match to play to decide the Championship Bracket Winners. In a close match of the Consolation Bracket, Sue Carlson and Ann Nugent won against Sue Fechner and Sheila Schoen. Team winners of both match play brackets were honored at the mid-year PLWGA Luncheon.

The MGA/WGA Exchange is scheduled for Tuesday, August 7. The men (18s) hosted the women for lunch following golf at the July event and the women (18s) will host the men in August. Members need to save Sunday, August 19 and Sunday, September 16 for the next couples events.

The August PLWGA Club Championship, scheduled for August 20, 22, and 24, is the most important event of the season. Club Championship Social Chairpersons Cheri Wight and Linda De Forest are planning a celebratory event immediately following the tournament.

The All-Star PLWGA competition on Tuesday, September 18, is the most anticipated event of the season. Members who have the most participation points of the season form two teams that compete in this three-part 27-hole event.

Play Day Away games continue throughout the season and destinations are announced via e-mail. Fall Gal's Getaway plans have been solidified for Whidbey Island, WA. Members should contact Chairperson Sharon Russell to sign up for this multi-day event.

Members should sign up prior to regular Tuesday games via Golf Genius emails. To sign up for casual golf on Fridays, use the sign-up sheet in the women's locker room. PLWGA Captain Sue Fechner invites prospective PLWGA members to play with the group any Tuesday. To sign up to play with the PLWGA or to join the league, please contact the Port Ludlow Golf Course Pro Shop at 360-437-0272. Note: Port Ludlow Golf Club membership is a pre-requisite for joining the golf leagues.

Port Ludlow Lady Niners News

by Kathy Traci, Lady Niners Publicity Chairperson

The Port Ludlow Lady Niners have been commenting that they have never seen the Port Ludlow Golf Course (PLGC) in better shape. The regular Thursday play dates have featured mainly postable games and a few "just for fun" events, such as a "Five Club" round in July. League members who played only with their favorite five clubs, including their driver and their putter, had a delightful nine-hole round of golf.

The couples July event was well attended and the next couples event is scheduled for Thursday, August 23. The September couples event is slated for Thursday, September 27. These two couples events begin with a 3:00 p.m. shotgun, and dinner following at Niblicks Cafe. Niners need to sign-up for dinner and for golf on Golf Genius. The Niners Couples Golf chairpersons, the Burkes and the Durasoffs, ask that players arrive at the clubhouse prior to 2:30 p.m. to pay for prizes and confirm their shotgun assignment.

Lady Niners Captain's Cup rounds are spaced across the season, and the next date that scores count for this cumulative score-keeping event is Sunday, September 9. Scores from the four Captain's Cup dates will be totaled, and the winner will be announced at the end-of-season luncheon.

Port Ludlow Lady Niners captain, Elaine Girard, welcomes new prospective members to play with the Lady Niners any Thursday morning. Individuals should contact the Pro Shop desk at the PLGC for additional membership information. Please note: PLGC Membership is required for participation in any of the PLGC golf leagues.

Men's Golf Association News

by Tim Propeck, MGA Tournament Chair

Each season the Men's Golf Association (MGA) has two major tournaments in addition to their weekly events. The first of those is the Presidents Cup, which was completed at the end of June. The format for this tournament is what is known as "match play," where two individuals compete on a hole-by-hole basis, and the golfer who wins the most holes wins the match. This is very different from our normal games, where the total score for the match is used to determine winners.

Participants are initially assigned to one of four groups (flights) based on their handicaps. Winners of individual matches play other winners until a winner for each flight is determined. There is also a consolation group for those who lose their first match.

The final phase of the tournament is matches between the winners. This gets interesting because the opponents can have very different handicaps, which was not the case when they were playing within flights with similar handicaps.

Congratulations to Don Thompson who won all five of his matches, and emerged as this year's overall winner.

Championship Bracket:

- Don Thompson – Champion
- Jack Lambton – Runner-Up
- John Germain – Flight 1 Winner
- John Harter – Flight 2 Winner

Consolation Bracket:

- Terry Oswald – Winner
- Shelly Washburn – Runner-Up
- Steve McDaniel – Flight 2 Winner
- Tim Propeck – Flight 4 Winner

Sierra Club Hikes Port Ludlow

by Tim Rensema, Contributing Writer

Many Port Ludlow folk may not be aware we have two organizations (separate but intertwined) that were visited on May 12 by the Northwest Division of the Washington Chapter of the Sierra Club. Our own Port Ludlow Hiking Club hosted ten members of the division who came to hike trails constructed and maintained by the Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) Trails Committee. Everyone, Sierra Club members and Port Ludlow hikers, had a wonderful day enjoying some of the best trails we have to offer.

First, they met at the Interpretive Trail off of Breaker Lane. If you have not walked this trail to Ludlow Falls then you are missing one of the most unique sites in Port Ludlow. It is one of the key falls mentioned on the Olympic Peninsula Waterfall Trail website (see OlympicPeninsulaWaterfallTrail.com). Historically, Ludlow Falls provided fresh water to the early town of Port Ludlow using an aqueduct-like structure called a flume. Today the path, which has recently been upgraded by the Trails Committee, climbs three quarters of a mile along the creek. Strategically placed along the way are benches and interpretive signs that inform you about the natural as well as cultural aspects of the area.

The hikers then braved our newest trail, Osprey, which the Trails Committee spent a great part of 2017 and 2018 clearing and building. There are over 230 steps on this trail, so if you approach from Oak Bay Road (across from the Village Store) go slowly. This path traverses between two developments yet you would hardly know it, what with the flowing sounds of the creek that bisects the area. See if you can spot the numerous ancient stumps with their “spring-board holes.” Long ago loggers would chop such holes above the flare at the base of a tree then insert springboards to stand upon so as to cut the straightest logs from the tree’s trunk. (Note: Osprey is a foot-traffic only trail.)

In the end, the Sierra Club members were extremely complimentary of our trails and the capabilities of our hiking club. As you hike Port Ludlow’s extensive trail system, if you see folk up to their ankles in mud, sweating by a trail on a Thursday morning, compliment them and thank them for their efforts. And if you would like to join the Hiking Club for a hike of your capability, go to PortLudlowHikingClub.com or look in the Voice for their – and your – next adventure.

Grace Christian Center

Solid, Spirit-Filled Bible Teaching

Grace Christian Center is celebrating its 15th year of serving our Lord Jesus here in the Olympic Peninsula. Planted in Port Ludlow, Grace Christian Center is a regional church, with people traveling from all over the County to worship with us. The Bible is our text book—we work hard to bring relevant teaching with an understanding of history, context, and current application in our very real and daily lives.

Grace Christian Center: Where we love Jesus first and foremost; where we love His Word and His presence; where we love His people, where your family can be a family in the presence of the Lord.

We invite you to worship with us Sunday mornings at 10.
